

Researchers of Truth Esoteric Practices Study Group – Introduction and Lesson 1.

SALT MINERS: Welcome!

Welcome to all you fearless “Salt Miners”! I hope you are as eager to begin “salt mining” as I am!

To get us in the right frame of mind before commencing practice each day let us ask for and invoke the help of the Higher Powers without whose help nothing can be achieved. May we receive guidance and support so that we can return from the mines having found and tasted much “salt”!

OUR LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father Who Art In Heaven
Hallowed be Thy Name
Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our transgressions as we forgive those that transgress against us.
And lead us while in temptation and deliver us from evil for Thine is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory, Forever.

Absolute Infinite Beingness God:
Everlasting Life, Love and Mercy;
Manifesting Yourself in Yourself, as the Total Wisdom and the Almightiness;
Enlighten our minds to understand You as the Truth.
Clean our hearts to reflect Your Love towards You, and towards all other human beings.
Amen.

Note: All quotes are from The Esoteric Practice, Christian Meditations and Exercises (abbreviated TEP) by Dr.Stylios Atteshlis, also known as “Daskalos”.

We are longing to “explore and experience the inner reaches of ourselves, of life, and of Creation.” pg.xi TEP and how do we go about doing so right here and now?

For starters as Researchers of Truth we all have one teacher in common whose work has inspired us and Daskalos has lovingly left us excellent study material to work with, with the very clear instruction to practice and practice until we achieve full experience and can make practical use of his teaching material to help ourselves and to be of service to others.

There is no better way to work with this material than in a group, endeavoring, failing and succeeding together. Make no mistake this is a big, life enhancing and changing endeavor and that of course brings with it many challenges. This is when having others to support and encourage makes all the difference. We will help each other stick to the straight and narrow way.

At this stage 33 weeks is the projected time frame for working through the entire book. We are pioneers here and that is very exciting and even if you have never worked with Daskalos' study material you will not be at a disadvantage. I will post for both beginners and more advanced Salt Miners, so choose your level.

Lesson 1.

Patterned Breathing Super Heroes!

So what's your Super Power? Patterned Breathing!! This Lesson is going to blow you away. You're being given a mighty tool which you will never again leave home without. Be prepared to be transformed into a Patterned Breathing Super Hero!

TEP page 47 – 48 Daskalos confirms the necessity to see breathing and the way we breathe as of utmost importance. As he says "The fact is, most of us breathe poorly and our health suffers as a result."

Last paragraph, Daskalos cautions against interfering with our breathing and confirms that the way we breathe affects our physiology and psychical well being and that many Eastern breathing techniques are detrimental to the minds and bodies of Westerners. * Note – Salt Miners from the East the patterned breathing can be used by anyone from any corner of the world.

Patterned breathing technique as taught by Daskalos has been used for millennia and all our practices and meditations will be super charged by it. "By breathing properly you will enjoy increased stores of etheric vitality for your health and to share with others in need."

So are you ready to get hooked on Breathing?!

Beginner Salt Miners

Brief Description of Patterned Breathing. TEP pg. 49

1. Relax, still your mind and become aware of your breathing.
2. Inhale through your nostrils a breath measuring 3 counts of the heart.
3. On the 1st count fill your abdomen
4. On the 2nd count fill your torso's midsection
5. On the 3rd count inflate your chest fully.
6. Immediately begin to release the breath through your mouth
7. 1st release from the abdomen,
8. 2nd midsection of the abdomen
9. 3rd empty your chest
10. When you feel comfortable with 3 counts see if you can increase to 4-4 and then 6-6.
11.  NB * Do not breathe on a count of 5-5 as this combination has an adverse psychic effect!
12. Repeat the patterned breathing practice 5 times for the 1st 3 days, 8 times for the next 2 days and see if you are comfortable repeating 10 times for the rest of the week. If not stick to 8 times for this week.

Remember with Esoteric Practices there is no gain when you strain!

Repeat the patterned breathing practice daily morning and night for this first week. Keep a record in your journal of your success or failure to complete the practice for this week.

Questions will be posted during the week.

*Note – Patterned breath work will be an ongoing, important part of this study, so there will be ample opportunity for you to work up to advanced level breath work.

More Advanced Salt Miners

You already know and enjoy the benefits of being a Patterned Breathing Ninja – but there's always more to learn about your Super Power!

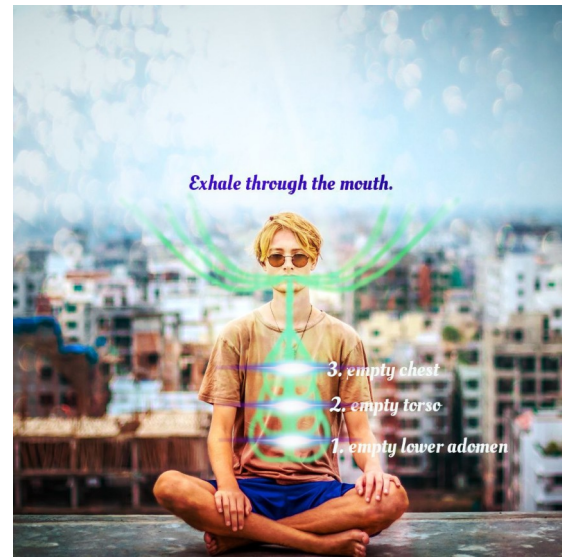

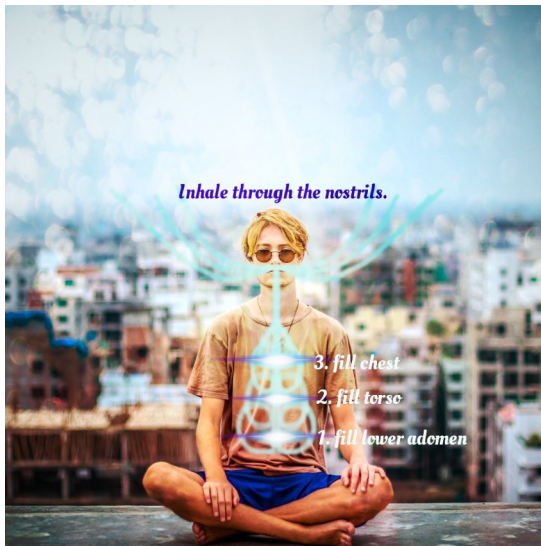

In your journal I want you to create a timetable for the week and to create for each day of the week 3 time slots, morning noon and night. For these time slots set aside time for patterned breathing regardless of what is happening – so even in the busyness of the day – breathe for whatever count works for you and repeat x 8 -10. Set an alarm if you need a reminder.

Combine the breathing with the visualization of your body being filled with each breath with more and more white light until at the end of the practice your body is glowing and overflowing and blindingly bright for all those with eyes to see. Offer all this light to the angels to work with as they see fit. See yourself as a storehouse of healing light.

Questions will be posted during the week.

Please research additional information from the following sources on the importance of correct breathing and come share your findings with us.

Week 2, Lesson 2 worksheet.

SALT MINERS: Thank you for participating in the TEP study group!

Our first week of "salt mining" has been hard work and great fun! So incredible to meet you all - and for those of you who have only recently joined us - Welcome! The daily patterned breathing exercise will be with us from now on - a lifetime practice - and it is taken you will continue to work at mastering this exercise.

Now turn to your journal. I want you to have a look at your patterned breathing time table and assess your commitment to being a salt miner and in particular to patterned breathing by how often you completed the exercises. I then want you to give yourself a big, fat golden star for showing up at all! You deserve it!

Lesson 2

Observation, Concentration & Visualization – Work it like an Angel!

Important word alert! Psycho-noetic as in psycho-noetical images. Definition: “Psycho-noetical images are elementals constructed of Mind super-substance at varying rates of frequency. Once created an image has a real, multi-dimensional existence that is far more durable than any gross material object.”

TEP pg.51

On a serious note, Daskalos cautions us to not confuse psycho-noetical images with fantasy. “By shaping substance - we seek to replicate the work of the Logos and the Holy Spirit by faithfully reproducing the noetic forms.”

Daskalos further states that “Visualization is used as a vehicle to expand our consciousness, as it is the language between the mundane and the Divine.” This sure sounds super important and deserving of all our attention and even more so when we are told “By constructing specific forms and settings we allow for interaction with Divine energies – and visualization is indispensable in healing work for invoking images of health and perfection - .”

“Archangels are constantly creating – in accordance with the Divine forms when they shape universes and worlds and when they form angels to watch over their work. Our ability to form these images is a most Divine gift and privilege that we need to fully develop with reverence.”

Key words to research: kinetic, creative, imprint and sensate ethers. What are they? Hint – they are integral to shaping substance and ultimately integral to being channels of healing.

The next 5 lessons in TEP are arranged to show us how to create psycho-noetical images. They may on the face of it look undemanding – simple even, but these are very important muscles to flex, strengthen and grow as healers and Daskalos is guiding us in using the psycho-noetic energy in as un wasteful way as possible.

Practical:

Flexing and strengthening your God given “muscles” of Observation, Concentration and Visualization.

1. Time to dust off your sketch pad, unzip your pencil case and find yourself a household object! You will be studying this object in great detail over the coming week. What are you going to choose amongst all the household objects you have? Remember you will have be creating a psycho-noetical image constructed from Mind super-substance that is far more durable than any gross material object!

2. Day. 1 Observe its contours, texture, weight and colour with full and unfailing attention.
3. Day 2 – 4 Now take your object and do your best to make a faithful and detailed drawing. You will be drawing this object a number of times from different angles so you will have ample opportunity to improve your drawing skill.
4. Day 5 – 7 Put the object away and draw it from memory from as many angles as possible.

Continue with your daily patterned breath work and if you feel ready and you were practicing on the beginner level, give the advanced patterned breath work a try. If you feel at all overwhelmed, rather continue with your beginner level breathing.

Week 3 Lesson 3 worksheet.

SALT MINERS: I'm back and I'm so very glad to connect again with you all!

Apologies to all for disappearing like that – but I am really glad to be back and to see you are all getting on just fine with some input from Daniel – thank you so much – and Liz Merrick's able assistance – thank you so very much too!

Quote from "Swimming With The Whale", by Daniel Joseph

"First Daskalos said he would create a strong Elemental, a thought form, by visualizing the leg whole and healthy. He then visualized the bones, arteries, veins and ligaments just as they should be perfect. He would then transfer large quantities of etheric energy in to the Elemental to do its work. But the visualization has to be very strong and contain no uncertainty."

The first 5 lessons of TEP need us to keep our eyes firmly on the goal – that of being able to visualize strong Elementals which with the help and permission of the Holy Spirit can bring about healing.

Lesson 3

Observation, Concentration & Visualization – It's Elemental my dear!

Repeat important word alert! Psycho-noetic as in psycho-noetical images. Definition: "Psycho-noetical images are elementals constructed of Mind super-substance at varying rates of frequency. Once created an image has a real, multi-dimentional existence that is far more durable than any gross material object." TEP pg.51

Key words to research: kinetic, creative, imprint and sensate ethers. What are they? Hint – they are integral to shaping substance and ultimately integral to being channels of healing.

Practical:

Flexing and strengthening your God given "muscles" of Observation, Concentration and Visualization.

1. Day 1 – 2 A lemon is a lemon is a lemon Elemental! This time it is easy – as long as you can find a lemon to draw. Failing that any fruit will do – it would be good if it invokes a strong sense of taste. Observe its contours, texture, weight and colour with full and unfailing attention and draw it until you know the outer form.

2. Day 3 – 4 Now pick up your lemon and be aware of what the lemon feels like. Smell the lemon, notice the texture of its skin. Visualize cutting a slice out of the lemon – if your mouth doesn't water you need to start a fresh until it does. Now actually cut the fruit and notice a bit of oil oozing from the peel, feel the juice then squeeze a few drops in your mouth – bet your mouth is watering now!
3. Day 5 – 7 Put the lemon away and visualize holding it in your etheric hands. Turn it before your etheric eyes. Feel the weight, the waxy texture, smell the lemon and visualize putting a slice in your mouth.

Continue with your daily patterned breath work and if you feel ready and you were practicing on the beginner level, give the advanced patterned breath work a try. If you feel at all overwhelmed, rather continue with your beginner level breathing.

Week 4 Lesson 4 worksheet.
SALT MINERS:

This week our mouths have watered and our teeth set on edge while spending time creating our very real psycho-noetical image of a lemon. The word “reverence” appeared in comments inspired by our TEP studies. Daniel also looked in on us as and when he could and left us with much to think about including his post on patterned breathing. If you have not read this post please do – it is dated 7th September 2016. We also now number 300 brave salt miners and counting. Although that is amazing and awesome in itself we know it is not quantity that counts, but quality – the quality of dedication to our “salt mining”. It may be hard to find the time and inclination to do the TEP lessons in the busyness that is day-to-day life, but with filled journals at the end of this brief 33 weeks of TEP studies you will have a wonderful record of how far you have come and what “salt” you have mined!

God Bless you all.

Lesson 4

Observation, Concentration & Visualization – La vie en rose!

I love that Daskalos begins this lesson with a quote from Georgia O’Keefe “still in a way, nobody sees a flower really, it is so small, we haven’t time, and to see takes time,
like to have a friend takes time.”

Let us, as the dedicated salt miners that we are, set aside time during the next week for some wonder filled observation, concentration and visualization. We are after all being invited by Daskalos to create a psycho-noetical image of a rose!

1. Day 1 & 2 Spend time gazing at your rose. Hold it in your hand and study it closely – its shape, size, perfume and color. Turn it around in your hands and observe it from the blossom to the end of the stem. Does it have thorns, leaves and if so what do they feel like? Having created a psycho-noetical image of a household object and a lemon you now appreciate the amount of detail you need to take in while observing and concentrating on your rose. If you are not filled with awe and reverence at the handiwork of the nature spirits, then you are not doing this exercise properly.

2. Day 3 & 4 For these two days do not physically hold your rose. As you begin the study period inhale deeply. Now visualize your rose in your etheric hand. You are using imprint ether to see and sense ether to feel. See your rose in its entirety in as much detail as possible – you must feel as if you are actually holding and turning your rose in your hands.
3. Day 5 & 6 For these two days you are again going to visualize your rose in great detail utilizing the imprint and sense ethers but now you are going to experiment with turning the colour of your psycho-noetic image of your rose from red to white. Visualize the colour slowly shifting to white until you have a pure white rose. Isn't that amazing! With the help of the imprint ether you have your very own psycho-noetic image manipulation program! Now experiment with other changing your rose yellow and then back to red.
4. Day 7 Again visualize your rose in all its beauty, but this time visualize offering this rose to someone you have quarreled with.

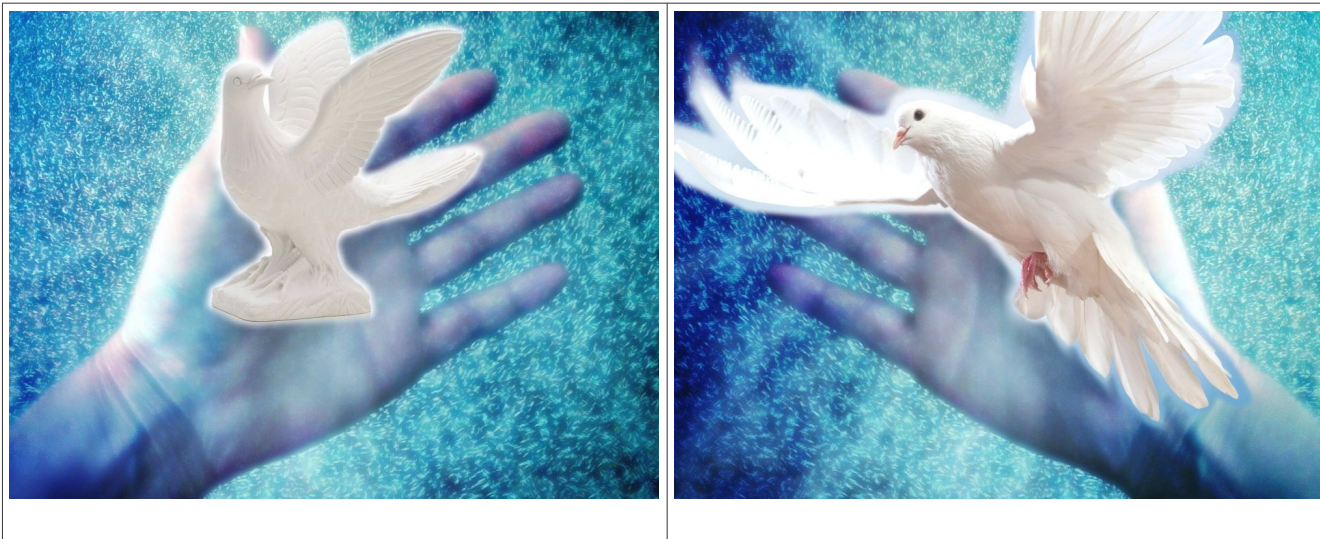

Daskalos ends this lesson with this thought, “There is so much to see and feel with the Divine gift of inner sight.”

Please continue with your daily breathing exercises. If you find you are benefiting from doing the breath work or are still feeling challenged by doing the breath work, please let us know.

Week 5 Lesson 5 worksheet.
SALT MINERS:

Over this last while the salt miners have settled down and there is a sense in the “TEP study room” of fewer papers being shuffled and quiet but happy endeavor.

For all newcomers – a warm Welcome! - and please do not feel pressured because you are only joining now. All the previous lesson worksheets can be downloaded by clicking on the Files tab above, at the top of the page. Work your way through the lessons at your own pace and if you have questions tag admin, Diane Holmes, Liz Merrick or group leader Daniel Joseph. If you do not tag us we will only pick up your questions when we do a sweep – at least when admin does a sweep.

The week of The Rose exercised our super powers of concentration, observation and visualization some more while blissfully creating a beautiful rose or flower psycho-noetical image. What a joy to behold and how magical to transform our psycho-noetical images from one color to another through the use of imprint ether! The last part of this exercise – offering a psycho-noetical rose to someone who we may have had a quarrel with is a loving and effective practice to lift ourselves and others out of negativity.

Blessings on your good work.

Lesson 5

“On the wings of a snow-white dove
He sends His pure sweet love
On the wings of a dove (wings of a dove) “
Jim Reeves – Song

In this week’s psycho-noetical image creating practice we will first visualize and then animate a dove!

1. Day 1 – 2 Spend these two days visualizing a dove made from white plaster in your left etheric hand. Feel the coolness of the plaster, the weight, the smoothness and the texture of the details like the feathers. Scratch the surface of the statue with your etheric fingernails. Did you make a squeaky noise that set your teeth on edge or gave you goosebumps? Let it fall from your hands and watch it shatter into pieces on the ground.
2. Day 3 – 5 Hold out your right etheric arm and visualize a white dove as it lands on your hand. This dove looks like the plaster dove but is filled with life. Imbue this etheric live dove with as many characteristics of a live dove as you can. Have you ever had a bird perch on your hand? Have you felt how the bird trembles a little and how the talons dig into your flesh a little? Using your left etheric hand stroke her feathers and caress the feathers around her / his head. Did your dove close it's eyes in bliss? Fill your dove with love.

3. Day 5 – 7 Set your dove to flight – hear the beating of the doves wings, see the dove fly in a big circle coming back to rest on your hand. Whenever you wish revisit your psycho-noetical image and even create a friend for your dove!

Please continue with your daily breathing exercises. If you find you are benefiting from doing the breath work or are still feeling challenged by doing the breath work, please let us know.

Week 6 Lesson 6 worksheet.
SALT MINERS:

Anyone else awake to the sound of birds' wings fluttering? I'm guessing I was tuning in to all the psycho-noetical doves that have sprung to life over this last week thanks to the salt miner's working through TEP lesson 5!

Amazingly we are only a few days away from sharing 6 weeks together in The Esoteric Practice salt mines – and for me at least this time has flown!

We now have created quite a collection of psycho-noetical images either in sharp detail or maybe a bit blurred and indistinct. No matter (excuse the pun) If all you did was show up and read lesson 5 through, gave the exercise some thought and read some of the other salt miner's comments and questions, practiced daily a bit of patterned breathing and nightly introspection before falling asleep, our efforts as group admin and leader have been rewarded. Thank you!

SPECIAL NOTICE: Some of the questions went unanswered in our 1st Q & A post. There was some confusion where to ask the questions and I apologize for not making that clearer. It did mean I had to copy and paste your questions and replies onto the Q & A post on the TEP timeline and this made it very confusing for Daniel to follow and find questions to answer. He will be answering the questions he has not answered yet as and when he can.

Daniel has also decided that the TEP study group page is becoming a bit too cluttered and hard to navigate and will be restructuring the page. In order to have the space to do so, from the 11th October 2016 - 18th October 2016 salt miners will have some valuable time off from TEP lessons. You heard right! You will have a whole week to revise, revision, catch up or take a break! Just in case you miss this announcement we will be posting reminders during the next week.

In the meantime we have gone to much trouble to find a virtual "TEP study room" large enough for our growing group of salt miners. Here it is and I feel it ticks all the boxes – what do you think?

Lesson 7

The Lord is My Shepherd

1{A Psalm of David.} The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Copied from <http://biblehub.com/kjv/psalms/23.htm>

This week I will post the lesson differently. I will post only one part of the lesson at a time. This means I will be posting Day 1 today, then Day 2 tomorrow etc. rather than post the whole week's lessons at once. This means we can do the exercise step by slow step – and it will mean you need to return to TEP salt miners everyday for the next part of Lesson No.6. At the end of the week I will save the entire lesson to the Files page as usual for you to download.

1. Day 1: Setting The Stage.

Start this exercises breathing in a patterned manner and relax completely. In all the exercises where we create our psycho-noetical images let us remember to repeat this breathing practice. Visualize yourself sitting near a meadow on a beautiful spring afternoon. What are you sitting on? A bench? On the grass? On a picnic blanket? What is the temperature of the spring air like? A little crisp still or comfortably cool? What is the light of the afternoon like? Soft golden highlights on the trees, blades of grass, flower petals? Now you have prepared the stage. Sit there and enjoy the feel of this space you have created – even if you only achieve a sense of peace and nothing visual is clear in your mind.

2. Day 2: Return To Peace

Do your breathing and relaxing and slowly reconnect with the feeling of peace your pastoral scene invokes. Is it still exactly as you left it the previous day? The same temperature? The same light? A more comfortable seat? Now cup your etheric hands together and feel how in the covered hollow of your hands first a little flutter is felt, a rustle of feathers, a slight increase in heat and mass. Slowly open your cupped etheric hands to find a small swallow resting there. With a lift of your hands launch your swallow into the air and watch it flutter and swoop and dive freely over the meadow, settling on a branch of an apple tree covered with delicate young blossoms. Enjoy again the feeling of peace and beauty of this space for as long as you like.

3. Day 3: On Eagles Wings

Return to your meadow – a happy, peaceful, restful state of mind. Has anything changed since yesterday? Can you see more detail than before or is the feeling of peace deeper, more familiar? Is your little sparrow still happily sitting in the apple tree surrounded by blossoms or is she/he swooping over the meadow performing joyful aerobatics?

Now look into the distance, against the deep blue sky and see a large, powerful ivory-white eagle soar through the air. The eagle dips and rises with just a tip of his/her wings. He/She effortlessly rides the air currents. Did you hear your eagle call? Again enjoy and relax in this beautiful, safe space for as long as you wish.

4. Day 4: Deepening Peace

Day number 4 and your psycho-noetical image of your meadow is feeling more familiar to you. Can you smell the freshness of the spring air maybe scented with spring flowers and the thawing ground? Gazing gently at the meadow do you see some cows peacefully grazing a little distance away? What color are the cows? Do they have bells hanging around their necks that clang musically as they move from one patch of rich green grass to another? Are some standing while others are lying down? Can you hear the gentle crunching as they chew the cud? Watch them and rest with them in peace and harmony for as long as you like.

5. Day 5: Murmuring Stream

Where ever you are, whenever you want to, step back mentally into your beautiful, peaceful meadow, filled with your loving, joyful psycho-noetical images. Examine each one as you would a trophy. The meadow. The little swallow. The white eagle. The cows. Take some patterned breaths, mentally relax, while gazing with soft eyes on all your creations. All is as it should be. Now cup an etheric hand to your ear - can you hear the faint gurgle and murmur of a little stream flowing through your meadow? Does this stream meander over rocks and along a twisting, winding rock bed? It is flowing gently, patiently finding it's way to a large pond. Can you see dragon flies darting over the surface of the pond? Are there water lilies? What colour are they? Are there reeds or bulrushes fringing the pond? Again soak up the feeling of rest and peace this scene holds for you for as long as you wish.

6. Day 6: The Good Shepherd

Thoughts of your meadow fill your heart to overflowing with peace, joy and love. You find yourself stepping into this frame of mind readily and today you are happy to find a flock of sheep have meandered into your meadow amongst the cows. There is a shepherd guiding the sheep. Your shepherd leans on a crook while enjoying the last of the day's sunshine. There is a sheep dog sitting patiently and obediently at your shepherd's feet. What color is the sheepdog and does a name come to mind? Now your meadow is filled with life. Enjoy and return to this world when you have had your fill and feel recharged and energized.

7. Day 7: Enter the Meadow

So far your visits to your meadow have been fairly passive. Today, after doing some patterned breathing and relaxing, see or feel yourself getting up and walking into your meadow. Move where you wish. Your swallow is flying above, swooping over the pond. There are flowers growing here and there. Your eagle soars above and the cows and sheep make way for you as you come nearer. Notice as much detail about every step you take. Is the ground firm or soft? Covered in grass or a little stoney? Step closer to one of your cows and feel her soft coat. Scratch her behind the ears and feel how she enjoys that. When you are ready return to where you began and look over your meadow. Enjoy the serenity and harmony you have created. In Daskalos' words -

“ This is a centre of peace which you can visit and take solace. Wish the harmony and peace of this meadow to spread over the material plane.”

Please do share images on this post of your perfect meadow with us and any thoughts, feelings, triumphs, difficulties experienced while doing the exercises – everything shared is very much appreciated by us salt miners!

God Bless

Lesson 8

Observation & Concentration Practice

This week's lesson is a practice to develop our inner nature of observation as found on Page 61 of the Esoteric Practices.

Rather than restating Daskalos words here, please refer to and follow the practice as given on page 61 of the Esoteric Practices.

This is a "Walking Meditation" practice but with recall. In this practice we will use the golden key of Visualisation to recall in great detail all the things you just saw on our walking meditation.

By concentrating on the things observed during the walk we will be able to recall the colours, the shapes, the smells, the sounds and the feelings more perfectly each time we do this practice. It is vital that we become more aware of our environment and what is happening in and around us here. For you will never be more conscious or aware on the higher planes during an Out of Body experience, or in sleep than you are on right now.

So all these practices wake us up, bring us to an alert state of consciousness which automatically translates in to a more alert state of consciousness when you are outside of your body. Being fully alert means we have succeeded in activating and developing the Aesthetic, Imprinting, and Kinetic Ethers in all three bodies.... The material, psychical and noetical. Being un-alert means very little of the Aesthetic, Imprinting, and Kinetic Ethers are vibrating in the psycho-noetical body. In each incarnation we are the same Soul but endowed with a different noetical, psychical and material body. This means that in every incarnation we, as a present-day person, have to self-consciously recreate/rebuild our versions of the psychical and noetical body picking up where we left off in our last incarnation. In order for our material body to be healthy and work properly we must get to know it and give it at least some exercise. So too with the psychical and noetical bodies, we must get acquainted with these existing bodies, work with them, develop them and build them up more by using these 3 ethers. Afterwards we will be able to make use of the creative ether.

In doing all these different kinds of practices we develop within us the ability to know and use our etheric double as Imprinting ether, Aesthetic Ether, Kinetic Ether. One of our primary goals is to develop a degree of mastery of the ethers. Awareness of and ability to begin to use our etheric double is vital for our progression along our spiritual path and is a prerequisite for entering into the advanced parts of the teachings and practices of a Researcher of Truth.

Just reading in a book or just following along and listening to a lecture or practice is not enough. To really advance we need to penetrate into the meaning of what we are reading, what we are hearing and what we are doing in order to connect deeply.

If we can do that; then our spiritual progress will greatly accelerate and we will move more quickly along our spiritual path.

Lesson 9

Etheric Energy and Etheric Centers (Chakras) & Finger Concentration Exercises

By now each of you is aware that there is an energy double, associated with your material body that provides the necessary energy for the body to move, function, grow and renew. It is clear our material body moves but can you imagine something moving without an energy supply? No. All Movement requires an energy source. And so it the energy double, the etheric double of the material body that is supplying the energy that facilitates movement of the body and movement within our material body.

This lesson 9, is about the etheric vitality and a simple practice that starts to train us in how we, as a personality-self, can begin to interface with this etheric vitality, learn how to master and use the first 3 states of this etheric vitality – Kinetic, Aesthetic (sensate) and Imprinting. This practice is called Finger Concentration and is good for anyone wanting to master their etheric, use this energy for hands on healers, remote healing and really for anyone who needs or wants to develop skills using their hands and fingers. It is a simple exercise that leads to more and more advanced work. It is a simple exercise but it will take good concentration and training on your part for success. The lesson begins on page 65 of the Esoteric Practices book with basic background information on the etheric double, etheric centers and the etheric vitality. And the actual Finger Concentration practice begins on page 72 through 73 in the book. As before “Comments” will be turned on Thursday to allow you to post questions about this week’s lesson on Thursday and Friday and replies to the questions will be posted on Saturday and Sunday. God speed to your good works, Next week we will see more about the importance of the Sensate (Aesthetic) and Kinetic Ethers and engage in a simple training practice, that Daskalos included in most all of his daily Stoa Lessons.

This practice trains us in how to use different natures of the Etheric Vitality in the Etheric Double of our Material Body. In this week's practice we will not be Visualizing and thus not be using the Imprinting Ether. Thus we will not be "seeing" any colors or light within the body. Instead we will only concentrate and work with the Aesthetic (Sensate) & Kinetic Ethers.

The Etheric Double is part of the physical body. It exists in the same dimension (3rd) as the material body, it is only visible to clairvoyants but we can learn to feel it and use by will power. Not unlike how we cannot see air, which also is of the 3rd Dimension but we can feel it. It is very important to remember that If we detach the physical body's etheric counterpart, the physical body dies and begins to dissolve. The etheric double is a part of the physical body, but we can send off part of the etheric double in the form of sensate and kinetic ether. The Researcher of Truth will learn how to send off part of his etheric body's radiance. In a way, you are already doing this subconsciously. Each day, part of this radiance (energy) is detached from our Etheric Double and projected with feelings and thoughts, which we call elementals. These elementals return to the one who projected them and they are how the human subconscious is created. We will research and study the human subconscious, its connection to the double etheric and how it is cleansed in future lessons.

Aesthetic (Sensate) Ether

This is how stimuli, excitations from the surface of the skin are transmitted to the point where impressions are received in the brain. This is done by the Sensate property of the Ether in the Etheric Double of the material body. It is through this Sensate property of the ether that we feel physical pleasure or pain.

Kinetic Ether

The movement within the human body, and the movement of the body itself, depends on the Kinetic, the second property of the ether. The Kinetic Ether within the nerves circulates etheric vitality, just like electricity through wires. But also, it can and does flow currents of this energy through the entire etheric double of the of the material body much faster than the blood moves through the body. The organs, bones and other physical components of the material body are not an obstacle to movement of the Kinetic Ether.

Why We Do This Exercise

When we become capable of consciously using the properties of ether then we will be able to intervene and contribute into the curing of diseases of the physical body. There will be more details given about this in future lessons.

So in our future lessons along with the theory we will do more exercises on our double etheric body. You must know and keep in mind that every organ of your material body is maintained by the relation that exists between the atoms of that organ's etheric counterpart by the sensate and kinetic ether, which can be felt but not seen by you but only to the Holy Spirit.
God speed to your practices this week.

In lesson #10 we used the Aesthetic (Sensate) and Kinetic properties of the ether in the Etheric Double of our material body alone.

As we observe our daily life it is clear we can use our emotions, and they are not at all the time counterproductive or evil. They may be good and kind emotions. But realize that in using the emotions (for good or bad) we are using a substance of the Mind in a lower rate of vibration as aesthetic or the feeling-giving ether.

As we observe our daily life, we can also see that we use another nature of our etheric double, which is an electro-magnetic energy, and we call it kinetic ether or the movement-giving ether: it is motion. It takes energy to stand up and start walking. You use the kinetic ether to get up and walk.. And everybody is using all these forms of ether but, subconsciously. However, the lessons in the Esoteric Practices book train us how to use them consciously and know what we are doing while we are using these ethers..

Last weeks practice trained us in the use of aesthetic and the Kinetic Ether only. Now in lesson #11, this week we will not use those two but a third and most important nature of the Etheric Vitality called the Imprinting Ether. We use this nature of the Super Substance of the Mind when we visualize.

Now, you must have the knowledge about the nature of the etheric double of your material body and its imprinting ether, this is in the whole etheric double, and its nature are the vibrations of the formless Mind Super-substance in a higher rate of vibration than the Aesthetic Ether. We don't receive ready-made thoughts from the brain. Thought takes place when we get this Super-substance and we formulate it into forms, or energize with it the already existing elementals of forms. By visualizing we are really using the Super-substance of the Mind in a more powerful way.

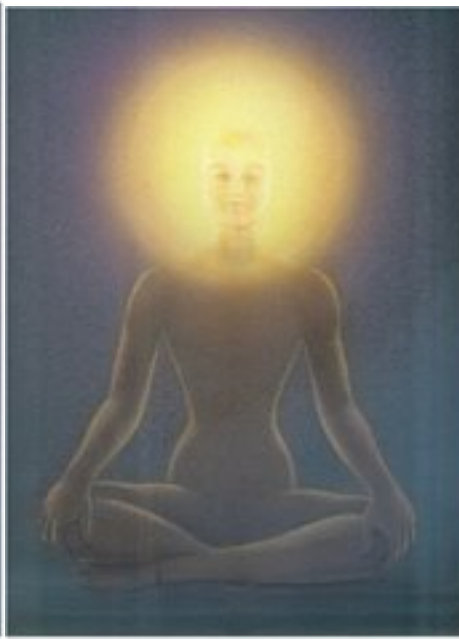

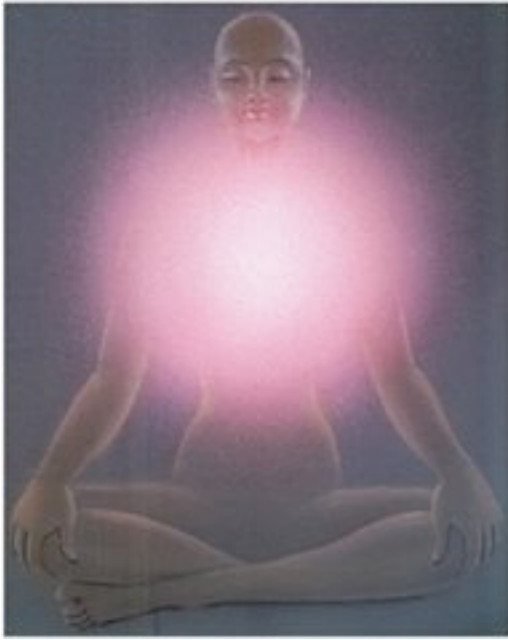

Each day we received thousands and thousands of vibrations, which are all recorded in our sub consciousness thanks to the imprinting quality of the Ether. Everything we see, even subconsciously without noticing, is imprinted in your sub consciousness. Let's go deeper...and say: the material light includes both, the psychical and the noetical light. Imprinting on the consciousness is not accomplished by the material light, but by the psychical and the noetical light, which leave images in the consciousness

Everyone is visualizing all the time but not consciously we do it subconsciously. We are visualizing what we want to have. What we desire to have. And, we do this visualizing very well, when our Present-Day-Personality strongly wants something.

In addition to just knowing about the Aesthetic ether theoretically is not enough. We must use it practically. At the beginning, it is not possible to see the etheric double. But, by starting to use it, we will get the feeling and working knowledge that it truly exists. And then - we can use it. We will use it as the imprinting ether (visualizing). It is not difficult because we are doing this kind of thing all the time subconsciously, serving our personality's interests. Now, we must use it consciously. When we say "I want to do this thing or that thing", make sure you also visualize it for a certain time to empower the process of manifesting what you need.

The initial problem when visualizing, meditation or concentrating is that when you start, even meditating before visualizing, a stream of uncontrolled thoughts will come to distract you and capture your attention. In is just at this point, you must become the master of situation – you must get the ability to concentrate on a thing for a time you want to, not allowing any other thought or any other emotion to take capture attention and distract you from your intended purpose. This is a most difficult part of your exercises. However, this is also the way we gain mastery of our thoughts and feelings!

Lesson 12

Etheric Arms and Hands

In lesson 12 we begin the serious work developing our etheric arms and hands to be able to use them in healing work and offering comfort to our loved ones.

Keep in mind that Etheric Vitality, what others simply call energy, has electromagnetic properties like found in normal electrical energy. But in addition to electromagnetic power, the Etheric Vitality of our Etheric Double has more properties.... it also has the creativeness... the Creative nature of Etheric Vitality, which is something normal electricity does not have.

Most healers and many body workers will declare they are using this energy by passing it through their hands when working on patients. However most do it sub consciously without understanding much about what this energy is, how it works and how to control it inside the body of the patients. And they may even tell you, "I have healing hands", which is true but it is not enough. To be more effective healers we need to do this work more and more consciously. So, we need to learn and train ourselves in this branch of study. And that is what this week's practice does.

Something more, you do not always need to put your hands on the patient or even be in the same locality as the patient. Sometimes it helps the patient to see you and feel your touch however, we also teach absent healing methods where you do not need to the physical mechanism of direct touch. It is not unlike the telephone. In the beginning, it was necessary to have a physical wire connected to a telephone for it to work. But now we have wireless telephones that no longer needs the physical wire to transmit and receive. Likewise, in the beginning of this healing work you may need to put your hands on the patient. But in time, with dedicated training, you will learn to send this healing energy instantaneously over great distances without it losing any of its power. Next week's lesson will introduce the initial exercise for remote healing.

So first we learn the natures of the Etheric Vitality in our Etheric Double, which is the Mind at a lower rate of vibration, still it is a Holy Substance – which means Etheric Vitality and healing work should be approach with reverence.

Next we need this training to learn how to move the Etheric Vitality in our body and into the body of the patient as well as to learn how to store it in our body and learn to retrieve it later for patients. (the Solar Plexus is a safe location to store this energy).

Again, we need to train ourselves, to qualify ourselves to be a fit conduit for the use this Holy Substance. And if at this point you are wondering exactly how you can do this, the answer is through Visualization and Believing. If you have no belief, it will not be possible for you to become a healer. If you cannot visualize you will not be as effective of healer as you could be. Note: Creative Visualization is not imagination, it is not fantasy, which are simply images that rise from your sub conscious mind to the surface of your conscious mind.

As we get skill with this practice we develop our etheric arms and hands, learn how to use them; we also want to implant an elemental of intent that "in time, our hands become healing hands". And that anytime we start to use them for healing that they be automatically filled with healing energy and power. By this we are ordering our sub conscious mind to obey and fill them with the healing power of Etheric Vitality.

And for those of you who will follow this healing branch of study in our system, you can also implant a wish that the blessings of Joshua Emmanuel the Christ be in your hands when you start to heal and comfort. Or as our guide, father Yiohannan, said: "Blessed be your hand when you make it the means to express your real self."

When you visualize your arm from the shoulder down to the finger tips full of radiant light, set your intent that the blessings of Christ or God, be in your hand so that it will heal whatever it touches, and that it will relieve pain and give comfort. But that it shall never, ever be use in anger or to strike anyone.

Godspeed to your good work this week...

Lesson 13
Etheric Hands and Colored Balls

This week's practice is very important for those who wish to become good therapists, which requires them to work more with the Imprinting Ether now and eventually the Creative Ether. With this practice, learn to collect the ethers in our hand using our real Will Power. But remember we are using different kinds/natures of ether simultaneously in harmonious combinations to facilitate healings. This means we are working to develop our mastery of the different qualities of the ethers and at the same time cleaning and purifying our personality so that one day we may become a qualified conduit for the Holy Spirit. Then, by permission of the Holy Spirit we will be able to transfer the Creative Ether into the body of a patient for healing.

The Etheric Vitality is the power and the force in our material body. Christ was teaching his inner disciples about how to use this energy in healing, but also he was teaching them how they could embed spoken words of power that will accompany the transfer of Etheric Vitality. This means implanting a directive, an order into the elementals we create, imbue the elemental with Etheric Vitality and extend a blessing and comfort to the suffering person. So, it is not only Etheric Vitality that nourishes, comforts and heals material bodies but it is also a word (spoken or unspoken) aligned with the Will Pleasure of God that does this work too.

But how can we claim to know something about the Will of God? By Observation! It is clear that God's will is for everyone to be whole and healthy and that is proven as we observe how cuts and broken bones will tend to mend given a little time. And this happens no matter if one is a Saint or a great criminal, which shows that God's will for all of us is to be whole and healthy. And it is by our training and practice that we qualify ourselves to be able to cooperate with this Will of God in hands on healings.

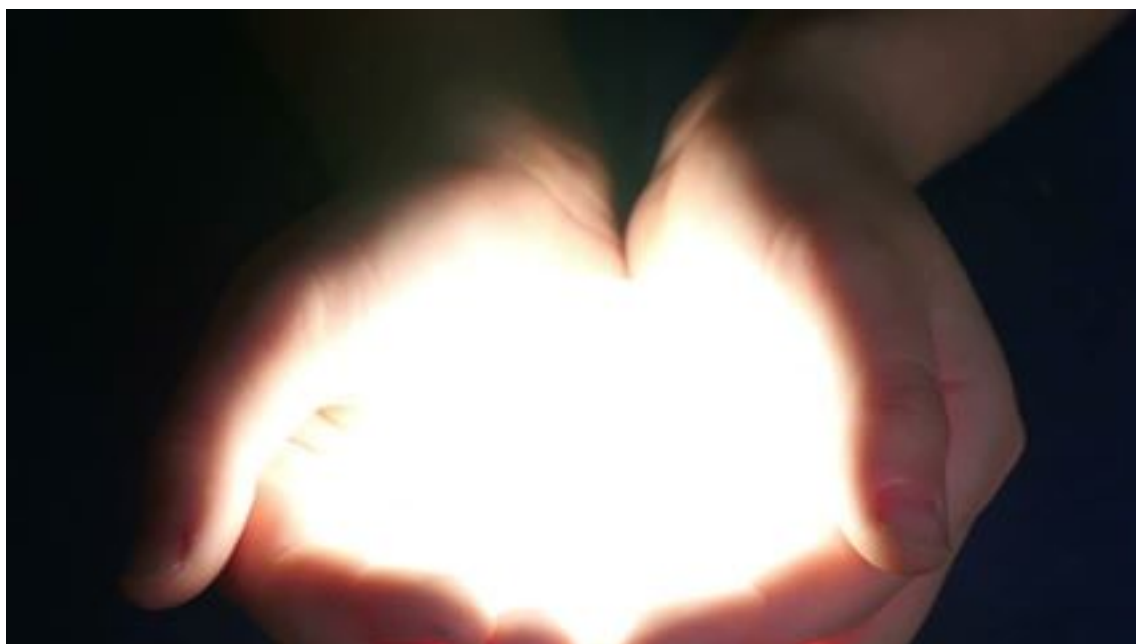

However, when we advance, we discover we do not always need to use our material hands to transfer Etheric Vitality. And this week's practice shows us what is required to be able to create Etheric Hands and extend it outside of the material hand. Now once properly created this Etheric Hand has its own Etheric Vitality separate from the Etheric Vitality remaining in the material hand. It is also quite possible to create many etheric arms and hands, a depiction of which can be seen in the statues of deities found in India and elsewhere. Over time this is possible, but for now it is not necessary. Now it is much better to practice creating only one set of etheric arms and hands so to become skillful using those first. By this practice we are learning to create etheric hands, extend them outside of the material hands and receive Etheric Vitality from the atmosphere. We must make this exercise enough times until we can FEEL that we are in the Etheric Hand when it is outside our material hand. Similarly, we create the bright spheres, fill them fully with the Ethers, implant their directive, their orders, their programming, feel we are in the bright sphere and send them to people no matter where they are on Earth. Distance is not an obstacle to these healing balls of light. When you send them, they travel in an instant to the recipient no matter how far away physically they are. We can also call them back, charge them with more vitality and send them again.

We did not create the Etheric Vitality in our body, we did not create the Etheric Vitality in the atmosphere, which through our practices we learn how to tap into this abundant source. Since we did not create it we cannot claim it is ours just because we learn how to draw it into us and use it. Thus we should not claim any responsibility if a person receive a healing facilitated by our skill and use of the God made Etheric Vitality.

Learning to properly use this vitality for comforting and facilitating healings will one day show us that this work is not just being done by our personality, it is God in us doing the work. The personality imitates this work and that is good for our personality to become engaged in the process and cooperate in this way. Yet again, it is the God in us doing this work... Note: It is God IN us, not God OUTSIDE us. Because these great works are performed through our Inner Self.

God Speed to your good work.

A Candle Flame

The exercise is very straight forwards and does not need much explanation. Because this week's practice again gives us yet another practice to develop our self-conscious mastery over the Kinetic, Ascetic and Imprinting Ethers of our Etheric Double. And we will also develop our skills of observations as we study a virtual or a material candle flame.

First observe that the wick in this flame, the dark area at the base of the flame. You are looking at a snow-white candle bathed within the golden light of this flame. Notice the flame's shape and how the outer edge of this flame is a different color the main body of the flame. And if you gaze softly at a material candle flame in a totally dark room you may start to notice a number of etheric radiations forming subtle spheres of refined emanations around the flame. But this practice will also lead us into how to use fire/flame to purify our personality of troubling thoughts, unnecessary or impure desires as well as any toxic feelings of hatred, jealousy and anger. When Daskalos created a special protective talisman by drawing a double six-pointed star and placing a candle in the middle [see Chapter 25, Initiation and Protection in Swimming with the Whale - www.thewhale.us] he used this time of practice to burn off negative Elementals off the one he made it for. As we all have been instructed, "It is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness" and let it burn brightly, invincibly and in complete and Total Love. Of course this not just instructions on to chase away material darkness using material light. It means we should light a candle in our hearts and use it's light, through visualization, to cast off fear, anxiety, doubt, depression, mental confusion and emotional contaminations.

Have you ever got some material thing that somebody gave or you buy a used something and it does not feel good or clean? So maybe you throw it away or maybe you want to de-energize all elementals from that thing. Can we do that? Yes, when you get it, say a prayer, the prayer you prefer the most. Then light a candle and pass that thing through the fire. Say firmly: "I want to de-energize every hostile elemental connected with that thing".

Now you can de-energize any elemental through fire. But to do that, you should attune to Michael, he is the Archangel of fire in you. The flame must obey you. When you are attuned to the Michael in you, then all the Michaels are in tune with you and they love you. And in our system for the Research of Truth, a flame means much, it symbolizes many things for the seeker of truth.

In Eastern Orthodox churches, many people go to the church to light a candle and pray for something they want. That is ok, Christ said ask it will be given, so it is ok to ask for something we truly need. But we should not ask for petty things. And we must be careful that by lighting this candle and making this kind of prayer that we are not subconsciously wanting to dominate over God and his Archangelic emissaries, bargaining for paradise...so to speak. We hear that we should "Live by God" - what does that mean? For sure, we do not mean to become fanatical to an imagined deity we and everyone else is calling God. Living by God means to give love all around us and to feel the joy of love given to us. Living "by God" means to overcome our outdate notions, dead ideas unproductive behaviors.

The term "Living by God" in the middle ages was often used to justify behaving like a great criminal in burning people alive, because of their different beliefs. This is not what "Living by God" means. Living by God, for the Researchers of Truth means living a simple, good, innocent and pure life.

It is good to light a candle and make a sincere prayer to God, to the Infinite Beingness, which is the Eternal Reality as Life. But do not confuse God's expressions of life (all the living forms of life we see everywhere around us on Earth and in the worlds beyond) with The LIFE. This is the Everlasting, Eternal Life, the nature of God. Comparing The LIFE with the expressions of Life is like comparing the material Sun to a candle flame. Even though they are both fire there is a great difference between them.

And in a similar way we can compare our personality-self to that of our real Inner Self as being that of a candle flame compared to our material Sun. Is there any divinity in our personality-self? Yes the ray of our divinity is like the backbone of our personality upon which we dress with the clothing of our mundane emotions, desires and thoughts. But at its core our personality is divine, it is like a flame. It's a fire. But this divine ray, this flame is like the fire of a candle it is not the fire of the Sun... it is only a ray from the Sun. Still its nature is fire like the fire of the Sun but the expressions of these two kinds of fire is not anything like each other. But do not underestimate the fire from a simple candle flame. Because even in its limited expression as a candle flame, it is possible to set fire to large areas of forests and cities. Or you can take one small flame and light thousands of other candles without diminishing the flame of the first candle. So it is not the quantity of candle flames, it is the quality of the candle flame that can do all this.. Similarly, it is the quality of that divine flame in a human being that is providing each human being his or her self-consciousness.

Again, one ray of our Real Self becomes unified with one ray of our Guardian Angel at the moment of our Humanization. Again we use the image of flames to help give meaning to this great, great unification which Daskalos referred to as the being "Egofied" with our Guardian Angel. And to help us understand this he gives us this example:

"I have two candles. I light them both and I see two flames. I put them together. I have one flame. This is the way this Archangel is egofied with us, becoming one flame, one expression of life. But, if you move the candles, you have two flames. Now, one of the flames is our Spirit-Soul-Ego. The same flame (two when you take away the candles one from the other) is the Archangel. So, he becomes a part of our existence. Now, you'll understand it in a better way. Egofied means the Guardian Angel attaching itself to the Spirit-Soul which is going to be incarnated, becoming one with it yet having its own identity. So, this Angel, from the orders of the Metathronius, retaining its unification with God, is now egofied with our Spirit-Self, to be humanized, keeps its nature and is also getting all the experiences of the humanized Spirit-Soul-Self (who is God).... So now, our Spirit-Soul (our Real Self) and the Metathronius are one, God."

So, if we can realize the Truth, first we should be grateful to these Holy Brothers of ours. They are our true elder brothers because as Spirit-Soul each one of us is like them. Not as the candle flame, but as a Sun, as a god within True God. It takes long contemplations and deep meditations to experience this realization.

All the good teachings from any of the sincere spiritual books, scriptures, systems, and teachers serve only as a guide as to what WE need to practice in order to reach some degree of enlightenment about these subjects. Because in any of these good teachings from any sincere spiritual books, scriptures, systems, or teachers all we get is an unlit candle and instructions how to use it. But if you get a dead unlit candle is really nothing to us – there is no lasting benefit. The benefit only comes when YOU light the candle and use its light to light your way as you proceed up the spiritual path back home to your Real Self. Even in reading the teachings of the Researchers of Truth, you still must practice them yourself to have the full benefit.

This is where many fail in their spiritual efforts. Too often spiritual seekers and really most people in general, want and expect everything to be presented to them ready made. But to experience Real Spiritual upliftment we ourselves must work for it. And so, I pray God blesses your good efforts on these Esoteric Practices with clear and unmistakable direct experiences of the Truth of them. And so we are to follow Daskalos advise as to what qualities we must develop in our personality to reach our aim of Self Realization: "The first quality is love. The second quality is sincerity with your own self. And the third is to banish laziness with this sincerity"

Healing with Balls of Light

In this exercise, we train ourselves both in our mastery of the Aesthetic, Kinetic and Imprinting ether by formulating the Super-Substance of Mind into Balls of Healing Light and by the development of our skills as absent healers.

Ed has previously uploaded some colored balls image to the Salt Miners Facebook page to give an idea of the colored balls. Visualizing the correct color is important because specific colors have very specific frequencies of vibration that help in the healing (balancing) of certain conditions in a suffering person. The colors we want to visualize are not to be flat opaque colors like that of a painted surface.

These healing balls are made of light so they should be a glowing colorful nebula, that strongly radiates a certain color of light. For those who may not be able to visualize these colors because they are colored one can do the best they can to visualize a ball of white light and hold in themselves the thought and vibration of what that color imparts as described in this practice in the Esoteric Teachings. For example, a ball of red light gives strength so one can concentrate on the idea/meaning of strength and implant that vibration into their ball of light even though they cannot "see" the proper color of red.

A new image of colored balls is included below but really the most pure and accurate colors to visualize are like the rainbow colors you see from sunlight hitting a crystal. It is that level of quality and purity we want in our visualizations. So, get a crystal put it in the rays of direct sunlight and look at the rainbow colors it reflects on a white wall or a white sheet of paper (don't look directly in to the light on the crystal as that could harm the retina in your eyes). Another point. Daskalos mentions not to attempt sending these healing balls of light (or any other specific healing method) to someone without having their request for help first. But why? Because at this stage of our spiritual unfoldment we are all working as a personality with various levels of skill. And as a personality we don't see or understand perfectly what is going on in another person. This means we want to be careful about influencing another's personality's free will – even slightly.

Also, when we attempt to help someone, it is vital for that person to both want a healing and to Participate/Cooperate in their own healing. Illness and accidents are not happening outside of Gods law, they come to a person to balance and offset a transgression of the Divine Law that the person has done in the past. Maybe even in a past lifetime.

However, anyone can make a prayer for God to help someone who is in need, without the person's permission, because in this case it is God we are asking to help the person and God is not in danger of making any mistakes. But even when we have a person's permission to attempt an Absent or a Hands-On healing, we always finish with "Thy Will Be Done". So always we are surrendering our will to the Divine will. Which means if a healing occurs it is not our personality doing the healing. And the corollary is that if we do Not see a healing it is not the fault of our personality. It is the Holy Spirit that decides about the healing.

Yet as we advance far enough to reach to the level of the Soul Self Awareness we are permitted to work in the behalf of others without their permission. Again Why? Because the Soul Self is also not in danger of making any mistakes. You will most likely experience this difference as the difference between when you feel you are Working Spiritually as a personality and when you feel that as a personality you are being Spiritually Worked. But until you for sure know the difference between when you are working as a personality self and when it is the Soul Self that is doing the work, you must get permission from the person who wants and asks for help. While qualifying yourself in long training of these practices is absolutely necessary to facilitate a healing, by itself it is not enough. We need another higher qualification and that is real love for the people we try to help. Without this you will not have much success in Hands on Healing or Absent Healing (which is often more effective than hands on healing). It depends. Sometimes people need to see and feel you put your hands on them physically to help them generate the believe and faith in a healing.

Again, we first must help the patient with our love and try to make the analysis of the conditions affecting them to help them relieve their personality from the feeling of guilt or remorse over their faults and mistakes.

This is what a real psychiatrist must do and it is what a good priest should do during a confession made by someone in a church. And this is what a Researcher of Truth does too. And if you noticed it is what Christ did immediately before healing someone when he would say: "Your sins are forgiven; your faith has healed you". In saying this, he was relieving the guilt of the sufferer and strengthening their faith in the healing. We are not Christ so we don't have authority to forgive all the transgressions of others. But for sure we can and should forgive those who sin against us. And we should not look upon the Transgression/Mistakes of others as great crimes and our own Transgressions/Mistakes as insignificant trifles. We should endeavor to use fixed standard, the same measure for others as we do for ourselves. Again, it is our love and our strong, strong wish along with the relief of guilt that sets the stage for healing. And this is true for physical healing or mental and emotional ones.

One of the first and greatest Church fathers (before Christianity was made the official religion of Rome) was named Origen the bishop of Alexandria (185—254 C.E.). Origen didn't believe in an eternal hell as a locality full of suffering of sinners. For him (and Saint Paul), all souls, including the fallen angels and their projections the true demons, will eventually achieve salvation/restoration, even if it takes ages. For Origen believed that God's love is so complete and perfect as to soften even the hardest heart so that restoration is made possible. He taught: Hell is an internal condition caused by guilt, remorse and shame. And that each person kindles their own flames of this internal hell fire and the duration of a person's hell last exactly as long as their remorse, shame or guilt does. So, the removal of guilt is a vital step in healing the mental-emotional wounds keeping a person in a psychological hell or in healing physical wounds.

All this takes steady effort over time, we have to train ourselves for this line of work. We must learn how to make a good analysis to help relieve the guilt of the suffering person, and we should become masters of the Aesthetic, Kinetic and Imprinting natures of Etheric Vitality. All this is done by seriously engaging in the practical work of the exercises found in the Esoteric Practices book and elsewhere in our teaching system.

God speed to your practice in creating Healing Balls of Light.

Lesson 16

Balls of Light & Healing Hands

page 90 Esoteric Practices book by Daskalos

This lesson teaches and trains us for more self-conscious healing work by developing our ability to control the vibrations in our hands by visualizing and feeling the energy of specific colors of light. This practice is a must for those who want to train themselves as healers.

We first start this training with these exercises using the etheric vitality in our etheric double and by now we should be certain from our practice that this vitality is electromagnetic. This means it has two basic expressions Electric which is the active aspect of this energy and used in the transmission of this energy. Whereas the magnetic which is a more of a passive receptivity of this energy. But do not think of these as positive and negative. Think of these 2 modes of energy as more like Positive A and Positive B aspects of this etheric vitality. This is the true "principle of life" on earth but it is not "LIFE itself".

If anyone examines a dead body it is obvious that the Life Force has left. Where did it go? We call this Life Force Etheric Vitality. Again, it is not The Life, it is not the Source of Life either, but it is under the authority of the Source of Life and the Archangels. Material etheric vitality (not the psychical or noetical etheric vitality) is one of the lowest vibrational frequencies of The Mind. This level of etheric vitality is vibrating just a little higher than the vibrations of what we call solid matter. But the Researchers of Truth must study, know and use this vitality in their work.

We all have this etheric vitality abundantly available, so anyone can do this work. Most who work as a "healer" are using this energy Subconsciousness. And they will tell you that they have healing hands, but that is not enough. A good healer should know what this etheric vitality is and how to use it.

This week's practice is continued training that will enable us to use the Absent and Hands On Healing methods given in our system. So, it is not always necessary or in some cases possible to put your hands on the patient. To be a good bodyworker or a good psychotherapist researchers should have this specific training, which is found in the Esoteric Practices book and in the other Researchers of Truth books.

The first thing we should know that this Mind Substance, this Etheric Vitality is Holy. It is Holy because it emanates from God. What comes from God is Holy what is God is Divine. So, we must always keep in mind that this energy is Holy, which means we should approach using it with reverence! And by our ability to use the Mind, we will come to understand that "We" are not the Mind. The mind is an instrument in our hands "We" use.

Yet, it needs special training to be able to use this energy of the Mind, which we have been describing in this Esoteric Practice course. This means Visualization - being able to see this energy mentally but simultaneously believing in what we are doing. This kind of creative visualization is not just ordinary Imagination. We must understand that visualization is not imagination or fantasy. With, imagination and fantasy we are just entertaining those images, thoughts, feelings and desires that are coming from our subconscious to the surface of our consciousness. So now we must learn what is our sub-consciousness, enter bravely into our sub-consciousness and clean it!

When we talk about healing most people think of physical healing but the pain and illnesses of our psychical body (our emotional body), which is not the Soul (the Soul doesn't feel pain), are much worse than the pain on the material body and much harder to heal. When we talk about being a good psycho-therapist is not that we just to learn to store etheric vitality or what the Hindus call prana in us and to release it on another person's body to relieve his material pain. To be psycho-therapist means to also be a good psycho-analyst too. In truth, to cure a psychical (emotional) wound is more holy than treating a wound on the material body, because - sooner or later, a physical wound will close and be healed by the Archangels. Physical wounds, that are kept clean and uncontaminated, will be cured automatically.

But, can the Archangels close psychical (emotional) wounds and heal them? No. It takes a good psycho-analyst to explain, to get the patient cooperate, understand the situation, and then it will be possible for a psychical wound to be cured. The psycho-therapist must teach the one with the emotional problem the right way of thinking and living in order to remove the CAUSE behind the emotional illness. Then the illness which is the EFFECT can be eliminated, which results in a lasting cure.

A good psycho-therapist should know the reasons, the laws behind the phenomena we call psychical illnesses so that he or she can work successfully with emotional wounds. Still it is good to train yourself to store up the etheric vitality in your material body and give it to a patient whose material body is ill. But, succeeding in becoming a good psycho-analyst is much greater work.

To become good psycho-analysts we must know the Truth of what is the Mind, what are the desires, what are the emotions, what are the weaknesses, what is the personality (not just his or her personality but all the personalities of those around them). This means Introspection. So, these are important elements to keep in mind and add to your weekly practice using the Kinetic, Aesthetic and Imprinting ether in the form construction found in the Esoteric Practices book.

Lesson 17

Creating Balls of Healing Light

This lesson continues our training on the creation of spheres of luminous light of various colors we send to help others in Absent Healing. This week we will get more skill and mastery over creating this most powerful noetical images. It is a must that you start learning to really feel the different vibrations associate with the different colored balls of light. And It is equally important to get comfortable creating, holding and sending healing balls of light and so we are advised to practice with the luminous sky blue ball by tossing it and catching it in our etheric hands. Do it in a similar way as you would with a material basketball to gain skill in controlling the basketball.

Something to consider is that when we say concentrate in the tips of the fingers and palms as we create these balls it is not exactly the same kind of concentration as we are suggesting for the head. When we say concentrate in and around the head forming a golden nebula the interpenetrates and surrounds the head – we do not want to create any feeling of tension, or a sense of compacting the energy there through effort. That kind of concentration in the head can give you a headache. Instead when we say concentrate in and around the head you concentrate without any effort what so ever. That may sound oxymoronic but there is a great difference between these concentrations. When you succeed you will notice this difference. Feel in and around the head as a spacious spherical shaped area using the Aesthetic Ether. And using the Imprinting Ether, see it as a misty golden nebula of light that is in the head and all around the head. If you do it correctly, you will automatically start feeling the heart center without any effort on your part. This means you are activating the reasoning faculty of the higher mind in conjunction with the Logoic expression in the heart.

Something else you should notice at then end this exercise as explained in the Esoteric Practices book. Daskalos says “sense when the balls are received and what other help you can offer”. What this means is in addition to creating the healing balls, which are elementals, we also can and should implant a directive in that elemental to report back to us what happens in the patient. This will give us vital information that will help us to know better how to help that person. We must realize that up to this point, we are not much in control of the elementals we create. Why? Because unless we have brought down, de-energized, or let's say killed the egoism in our personality, our egoism can and does cause our elementals to revolt against us. But after unseating the egoism, you will find that the elementals are much easier to control because we have become the true master of our home by ending the egoism's unreasonable reign over us. This is really a great, great accomplishment and opens the doors for much greater advancement than you currently understand is possible for you.

Now you will be a true psychotherapist which is blessed. It is a blessing to become channel for love, life and mercy as a psychotherapist. This is achieved by simply learning how to use the elements correctly - by creating elementals correctly, and giving them power. But not just any kind of elemental. I mean consciously and self-consciously creating pure and purposeful thought-emotion type of elements and not emotional-thought elementals. What a good psychotherapist should do is to treat the personality of a man or a woman which is suffering. Not the material body. Of course, the material body has illnesses which are a result of the disturbance in the nervous system and transgressions of the Divine Laws. But, the first thing a good psychotherapist must do is to see and to detect the reason for the illness in that personality. So it is better for the psychotherapist to work with the personality instead of dealing with the material body, because, if one is able to cure the personality of a man, the effect will be felt on the material body.

Always remember that a psychotherapist is not giving something of his own towards a healing except his time. What is being given is the etheric vitality which is God's. It is given freely by the Holy Spirit and is not the property of the psychotherapists. Christ says "Freely you have received; freely give". Which is why the Researchers of Truth do not charge for their healing efforts..

Balls of Light for Self Healing

Page 94 Esoteric Teachings by Daskalos

Now in this lesson we will use the healing balls of light for self-healing of physical, emotional or mental healing. It is ok to use this holy vitality for keeping ourselves whole and healthy...we need to be well ourselves to help others. If we become weakly and sickly then we will need to rely on the help of others, so keeping our heart mind and body in good shape is necessary.

For example, if you have stomach troubles, then visualizing the sky-blue ball, filling it to over flowing with etheric vitality and seeing it enter your solar plexus is very good to do. Or if you have a thyroid problem, then visualizing the bright orange ball, filling it to over flowing with etheric vitality and seeing it enter your thyroid, should be done. But with these practices do not overdo it. It is better to have a short 10-minute good steady visualization than a long 30 minute unstable, unclear one.

So in creating balls of healing light and absorbing them in to certain centers in/on our Etheric Doubles we are contributing to the good health and functioning of each body – material, psychical and noetical. When we do this, our etheric doubles radiate health and beauty. The researchers of truth who develops their mastery of the Etheric will be an absolute blessing to their family, friends and environment in general. They will extend and invisible radiance and others will sense it, want to be in their company, to be close to them and even sometimes they want to touch you. Why do they want to come so close and sometimes touch? Because subconsciously they are drawing energy from your radiance – healing energy!

Remember in the Bible the story of Christ as he passing through a crowd of people, He said: "Who touched me, I perceive virtue (power) has gone out of me." The disciples were looking at him curiously and said we are in a crowd of people pushing on your what do you mean someone touched you. There was a sick woman near Christ who had been bleeding for many years, believed if she could touch Christ's robe she would be cured and she was (this healing came about because of her belief and faith that she could be cured – this is a clue for anyone wanting to be healed of anything). So, in addition to us sending this etheric vitality to others, this etheric vitality in our bodies can and does get drawn out of us. It tends to happen subconsciously, but when the energy draw is too much, the one losing energy can become uncomfortable, irritated and very ill at ease around the person sub consciously drawing on them.

But the most common problem is that so many people are wasting their etheric vitality in creation thousands upon thousands of useless elementals that are using this Holy substance for the prolongation of their questionable existence. But the Researchers of Truth know how to collect, store and use this Holy substance. This is what you are learning to do now. They know it, respect it and use it correctly. This is what gives that magnetic radiance.

Something else, this weeks and the other exercises give you is control over your Etheric Double. And it is not unlike how you learn to control your material body. If you had not used your legs or hands until now in your life and I asked you to a deep knee bend or a pushup would you be able to do it – No. However, those are certainly in the material bodies abilities. So, when we talk about gaining control over the etheric double of the material body it is similar. It is just not possible for you to have immediate mastery over an invisible part of the material body you have never used. But when you do start gaining control over the Etheric Double, you will see it is like gaining control of the material body through regular exercise. It will be not be any harder for you to move your etheric arm than it is to move your material arm. What produces more obvious results is when this control becomes a matter of habit. These practices to gain control over your Etheric Double are very important and useful at this stage you are working on now. They should be very important to everyone reading this, because it is through these practices you will learn how to keep your material body completely healthy.

Then you will learn how using the skills developed by the practices to live consciously having control over your psychical body, the body of your emotions, and one day with training you can use it a separate body which may seem like an interesting a theory to you now but one day will be your practical experience as you discover you can have command over it in Exosomatosis. But today with these practices you will be cleaning and keeping your psychical body completely health.

These practices will teach you how to Safely open the psycho-noetical centers which become like sense organs to you giving you clairvoyance and clairaudience. This is a very great gain and one no one can take away from you. When you reach, this stage it is of course a great gain but you will go beyond this stage and eventually gain control over your lower noetical body. And likewise, you will be able to use the noetical body independently from the psychical (and material body) and express yourself even more completely.

All this experience gives you the realization of just how inhibiting the material body and brain is as a tool of receiving impressions. Because you will have the direct experience of how your thinking is not nearly as clear when you are in the material body using the material brain. You will see that the vibrations of the etheric double and the psychical body are much faster than in the material brain. The material brain "deadens" such vibrations.

An example Daskalos gave is like having a great violinist but asking him to perform with a glove on. How well will he be able to play music with a glove on his hand? But when he takes the glove off he can play faster and much, much better. In Daskalos' analogy the glove has the same effect on the violinist's playing as using the material brain has on the process of thinking.

And you will discover this too when for the first time you experience meditation and gain knowledge while in your noetical body (outside your material and psychical body). Then you come to know by direct understanding (just as you have been taught), that within the Noetical Light, is clear thought and real knowledge that leads to wisdom. In this state you don't need words associated with meanings. These are steps which lead us to a different state of understanding, in which, you ARE the knowledge and knowledge is NOT something outside yourself.

I wish you all have this experience.

Lesson 19
Cleansing and Protecting the Bodies
Introduction Page 95
Exercise Page 97 A Shell of Light

This practice is a vital one to teach us how not to let our etheric vitality seep out of us sub consciously. And it is a particularly important skill to develop so that we are badly affected or harmed by negativity we may encounter in our relationships and in our daily interactions in the world.

It is natural for water to flow from higher areas into lower areas, or for heat to escape from a heated room into a colder outdoor environment if a door is open to the outside. In a similar way this is how our energy, the etheric vitality in our Etheric Double works too. This is all due to the Universal Laws of Balance and Order governing all Three World of Existence. Which means if you have a high level of energy and you connect with someone with low levels of energy the etheric vitality automatically flows from you (most times without your awareness) into the one with lower energy levels. Most often this is not a big loss of energy but a small trickle. But we all have had the experience of being around an "energy vampire" where the withdraw of energy is so excessive you just want to get away from them. When the energy withdraw (consciously or sub consciously) becomes very disproportionate; agitation, irritation maybe even feelings of hatred arise in the one losing the energy.

But this exercise helps you become more self-conscious about your own energy reserves and gives you more control of your vital energy. And in time, you gain self mastery of the different natures of etheric vitality. As Researchers of truth our etheric double and its energy must become a reality for use. We go beyond theory and know it, because we can use it at will. We have named these natures of the etheric counter part of our body: Imprinting Ether, Aesthetic Ether and Kinetic Ether. There are four other states of the ether – but it is not necessary to be concerned about these until you have the ability to use the other three natures mentioned above. As Etheric as a substance is all the same but with different characteristic. By now everyone should know these three main characteristics of the Ether: Imprinting, Aesthetic, and Kinetic. If you are not quite sure of the difference then please review page 67

& 68 in the Esoteric Practices book by Daskalos. We have done some exercises using these three natures of the Etheric which in time give us direct knowledge through our concentration and will we all know of the three forms of our etheric double.

The Etheric vitality of the Etheric Double of our material body is invisible like air. But like air it can be felt. And like air it is part of the third-dimension - the material world.

Every etheric atom, has all the different natures of the Ether: Imprinting, Aesthetic and Kinetic. Like the material body, its Etheric Double is contained within the Psychical Body. It is not possible to have even a single cell, molecule or atom in your material body that does not have an etheric counterpart. Every cell, molecule and atom of your body has been created, is sustained and maintained through its center, its core of its etheric counterpart. Take note: This means that gross matter is only an EFFECT and not the CAUSE. Matter is the puppet not the puppeteer.

Again within the material body is the etheric double and it radiates outside of the material body. And the light radiating off of the Etheric Double takes on an oval shape. This light radiation from the Etheric Double is what people call the human Aura. In a healthy person, it is brighter, in a sick person it looks dull and is visible to a clairvoyant or someone with developed intuition. So a person's state of health in its entirety is reflected in this aura. But even a better diagnostic method is to concentrate on the etheric counterpart of an organ in the body. Being able to do this is an initial level of intuition.

So in this lesson practice we are becoming aware of this oval of light, starting to work with it and to use it for our protection and well being. Although a clairvoyant can see all colors on the Etheric Double, the most dominate color seen is white. Now try to visualize an egg shaped oval of white light on the etheric double, extending two to three feet around you material body in all directions. Please note the egg shape has its wide end above the head and the narrower end below the feet. This is the etheric aura of the material body.

But the Etheric double itself in and around the material body extends a few inches beyond the material body and its shape is exactly that of the material body. A clairvoyant who is developed enough, will see the etheric vitality of this etheric double, denser around the body than the etheric light emanations in the egg-shaped oval called the aura.

As we mentioned before, this etheric aura gives a white color but not exactly pure white; it is slightly off-white. But the colors mentioned before are on/in the etheric double and are colored according to the emotions of the person. Accordingly, the same synthesized colors also radiate and appear in the etheric double of our psychical body too. These main colors in all their shades, reveals the nature of the emotions, the thoughts and the conditions creating them.

When we do the preliminary meditation, the three suns exercise, we visualize a sky-blue sun in and around the solar plexus area, a rosy pink sun in and around the heart center and a canary yellow or gold sun in and around the head. And the radiations of these three suns pass through the egg-shaped nebula of white light. And conversely the radiations from the aura of white light also pass into the three suns making them brighter.

Later in more advanced practices you will learn to breathe through this egg-shaped aura of the material body. One of the purposes of this aura is to expel certain etheric substances unnecessary for the body, as well as to take out other matter-substances excreted through the pores in the skin (not physical sweat). But through these pores in the skin, these tiny chakras, we will with training, be able to breathe in higher frequencies of etheric vitality to keep our etheric double clean and bright and serve as the link connecting the etheric double of the material body and the etheric double of the psychical body. We have certain meditations, for this kind of breathing where we use the kinetic and aesthetic ether of the material body's etheric double. But do not make the mistake to think this means the psychical body has a need to breathe – it does not.

So for this lesson I encourage you to begin your work with the Shell of light exercise most seriously because it is very important in safely and effectively raising one's consciousness to higher levels.

Good Health Exercise

Page 99 Esoteric Teachings by Daskalos

In this weeks practice we will work on creating good health physically and a profound sense of wellbeing mentally and emotionally. We will greatly expound on this in the Sedona Workshop This is one of these basic exercises that both beginners and masters do daily.

We have a nice animation of this exercise at <http://www.researchersoftruth.org/prac.../good-health-exercise> So please also see this example as you learn this practice. Of course, colors on a two dimensional computer screen cannot come close to the clarity and vividness of the colors in a good visualization, but this will give you an idea of the colors, size and locations for this exercise.

We suggest that everyone, wherever you are and whatever level you find yourself now, to learn to live by the principles of our teachings and not continue with the habits everyone has been living by up to now. The disease and illness are caused by disturbing the Law of Harmony can be seen everywhere in our society from the wealthiest mansions and gated communities to the poorest homes and neighborhoods. Illness, disease and accidents are an effect of a cause. And we see this Law of Cause and Effect everywhere, but when we change the causes naturally the effect changes too.

Which means for example where there is egoism, wounded feelings and aggression, let's replace them with love, tolerance and acceptance. This means, it is not our time and space locality we must change. The change must take place within each person, whether you live in a poor house or a palace, whether you are a peasant or a prince. Therefore, the change must take place within them; not a change in their social behavior but a real change within the personality. This gives us better results, first in the material body, which is a divine gift bestowed on all of us and secondly better results and experiences in your home, work and environment. And in this way, you will see improvements in all these areas by this simple way, which is very effective is we only desire it and make the effort necessary. Then you will see you yourself can turn a hellish environment/situation in to a paradise. And we will be the first ones to benefit from this paradise and then those around us. This change within the personality will put you in a position to make better use of your divine gifts of reason and love making you're the master of situations, through the proper use of your thoughts and will. And as you practice these exercises using the Etheric Vitality which will first bring you better physical health because now you are co-operating with the Holy Spirit in your use of this energy. But also, you will create healthier conditions within your psychical world, the world of your emotions. Here you will remove hatred, jealousy, the feeling of being hurt and you will replace them with rational thought and create constructive conditions within the boundaries of love. Along with the theory provided in our teachings we equally need the practical exercise we are doing in this Facebook group as well as the resulting benefits mentioned above. And your teachers and guides in this system have a right to expect you to have a healthy body – this expectation of good health has been made quite clear in our system. And the same for your psychical and noetical. And this is the point of this week's Good Health Meditation. To keep all three bodies in good health and complete harmony.

Of course, the Holy Archangels and the Holy Spirit work non-stop in the bodies of all of us in doing their best to keep the body in good health and order. But what is that personality of a man or a woman doing while living in these bodies? Often, people express disharmony, discord, turbulent emotions while over taxing the mind, emotions and body's energy which deprives these Archangels of the necessary vitality they need to build up the bodies. And the result is illness. God has given each of us a material body in good condition (unless we interfere by our behavior) all we need to is to wash it, exercise it a bit and feed it – the real creative work keeping our bodies alive is in the hands of the Archangels.

Good health in our material body is natural if we do not un-wisely interfere with the Archangels work by exhausting that energy necessary for them to keep the body healthy. Which is really saying that every illness in our body is due to our irresponsibility in the way we are living (or have lived in a previous incarnation). So, the material body and its good health should be one of the branches of our study in this system. We have the great advantage of the work of the Researchers of Truth from previous centuries who have worked very hard to find out these truths concerning the material body that we present our lessons today.

You may want to say a prayer asking God and his Archangelic emissaries for good health by saying: "I Want Perfect Health to be in my material body". This prayer brings an inner smile to your Archangels because that is what they are doing all the time – you do not have to ask. But it is ok to say this prayer because in saying it, you are ordering your sub consciousness not to counter act the work of the Archangels and this helps them. Say it like this now and mean it – "I will cooperate with the Holy Archangels of the Elements for the good health of my material body." This is a very powerful elemental you have just created. It is a purely noetical elemental and the only emotional desire you give it is the wish to live in good health. By doing this we are storing an elemental of good health in us that continues its work long after we have forgotten about this prayer. All our Archangels are loving us, even if a person is a criminal, prostitute, or murderer. They are working in all these bodies just as perfectly as they work in the body of a saint. They keep on insisting that our bodies be in perfect health, watching and waiting for the time when we will wake up. This reveals that it is not just our real Self they love, they love even its shadow the personality with its egoism. And pay attention, they do not interfere with force but inspire us with persuasion and prayer. And God entrusted to each of us a material body, which as Christ rightly said- "is the Temple of the living God".

If we know and believe this great truth, then we must eventually conclude that the way most people are living in their body they are transgressing the Divine Laws all the time. And we see illnesses on their material bodies and sufferings in their personality because of these transgressions. While simultaneous the Logos, the Holy Spirit and the Archangels work tirelessly to keep the bodies healthy. So, who is causing the illnesses? As we said we all are. We cannot blame God, or the Devil (people have a bad habit never accepting a fault as their own but instead laying the fault at the feet of others). So as of today, let's make a greater effort not go against the unceasing work of the Archangels in keeping our bodies healthy. Please help them do that by practicing the Good Health exercise every day.

Health and the Subconscious Page 101 Esoteric Practices by Daskalos

In this week's practice, we will expand on the Good Health exercise from last time and begin to work with our sub consciousness to create health both in our Material Body as well as our personality. Most people do not realize the major role our sub consciousness plays in healing. The Sub Consciousness is a vast storehouse of energy but also a vast storehouse of all our elementals and it has three chambers. One chamber, the most important is that of the Logos and Holy Spirit which is totally pure. Our personality is not allowed to access or effect this chamber. The second chamber is the storehouse of life-giving etheric vitality used every day. The final chamber of the sub consciousness is a wild and wooly jungle in most people. It is the chamber that contains all the elementals composing our personality.

Day after day Week after week, year after year our revitalized elementals steadily sink into and are stored in the sub consciousness. And from time to time the more active ones rise to the surface like fish in the ocean and feed. Feed on what? They feed on the energy of our attention, sometimes burning excessive amounts of etheric Vitality needed for the health of the body. When they return to the surface our conscious they to draw their own strength and they (elementals) and then again submerge back into the dim recesses of our Sub Consciousness to continue their sub conscious life. And the ocean is a great metaphor for our sub conscious and conscious mind. In this analogy, the surface of the ocean represents the conscious part of our mind. Everything under the surface represents the sub conscious mind. And like the ocean the deeper you go in the sub consciousness, the bigger and stranger the creatures you find there. And this is the work of Introspection – to examine the quality and quantity of those elementals lurking beneath the surface of our awareness. And then we Eliminate the Negative, and Accentuate the Positive.

Something more, inside your Sub Consciousness are all the lessons you have learned and those you have not learned from previous life times. All this plus the elementals created and harbored in this life time creates your character as well as your current situation in life.

If you do not want to believe in past incarnations, it is ok. But at least look at what you are today as a personality with all your strengths and weaknesses and work on that. To develop a better character, it is not necessary to remember or even believe in past lifetimes to overcome anger, fears, jealousy, etc..... Really it does not mean much to believe in past lives because you have the state of your Sub consciousness, your character, as it is today but you must work on it and go forward. It is not necessary to look behind. Now the bad news or good news, depending on your point of view, is the Sub Consciousness does not reason, it only obeys. Therefore, suggestions and auto suggestions produce such good or disastrous results. Because any negative or fearful elementals about ourselves that get stored, the sub consciousness accepts without question and that becomes part of who we are as a personality. Likewise, any good, positive elementals that gets stored about ourselves are incontestably accepted and that becomes part of who we are as a personality. It is like they say about computer programming... Garbage in – Garbage out. The resulting outcome is directly related to the quality of that which has been inputted. And so, it is with our Sub Consciousness.

So, this week's practice will show you how to program your sub consciousness in the right way that produces good health in the Material body, in your Emotions and in your Thoughts.

INTROSPECTION AND THE COMMON SELFHOOD

on Page 105 through page 109 of The Esoteric Practices book by Daskalos

This is again is working with the subconscious mind and faith and relates to the Common Selfhood. We all share equally in the Common Selfhood of God. As a Self-Aware Soul, we are as cells in the Absolute Selfhood of God. Unfortunately, as small self-aware personalities we feel a phonemical and very strong sense of being different and separated from one another.

In this week's practice, we will consider all that and use the Golden Key of Introspection and our Sub Consciousness to close the pronominal gulf between us and others. We will introspect on our feelings, words and actions, particularly as it pertains to others. This is the most important of the exercises of the Researchers of Truth. But most people do not give much effort to do this or if they do they often say they do not see anything wrong. This is because the elementals associated with our errors hide like cockroach at night when you turn the light of introspection on.

Nonetheless, please preserve and you will find your errors and your weaknesses that burden your life. And that is a great benefit not only to yourself but to the others around you. Because through this process you'll reach the understanding that your errors, weaknesses and burdens are also the errors, weaknesses and burdens of all human beings and so in this regard they are yours also because of the Common Selfhood. If you can manage to free yourself from them then you will be in a position to help free the others from theirs too. That's what Joshua the Christ has done: He had shouldered the vices of humanity, this is the real meaning of the cross of humanity that he shoulders.

However, you will not be able to come to that understanding unless you first Find and Admit through your own study and Introspection that each and every Human Being is a child of God just like you are... and so you must love them "as yourself" just like Christ was advising. That was Joshua's instruction to everyone: Love your fellow Human Beings around you as you love yourself.... Not less! Why? Because in truth the really are yourself – this is the Common Selfhood. And you cannot in good faith claim you love God unless you love the other Human Beings around you. This does not just mean love your neighbor as yourself, that was a miss translation. Christ was not advising us only to love those who live in our same social-economic neighborhoods. The advice was to love all our fellow Human Beings. And the promises of the Researchers of Truth further this point with the 5th Promise: "To love and serve my fellow human beings sincerely from the depths of my heart and Soul No Matter what their behavior may be towards me" In spiritual circles, everyone talks (& talks) about, and wants to raise their consciousness to higher and higher levels. But did you know that there is no more effective way to do that than through the sincere application of the 5th Promise. By applying this promise we will come to find our place in God, not only as an Eternal Spirit Being but as a purified personality. Because at the core, as the backbone of the personality we are a god – an offspring of God. And even if that child's behavior is bad, a naughty child of God is still a child of God. So when Christ was saying all are sons and daughters of the Almighty, addressing the people of Israel (even the members of the Sanhedrin who condemned him to the most cruel death) he was not only speaking to their Spirit-Soul Selves. No, he was speaking to them as Human Beings. So even as Human Beings we are part of the divine Common Selfhood.

Even though it takes real effort to reach to the level of the Common Selfhood and understand the difference between an individual self and the Common Selfhood... we must try! And when we reach that high and enter the Common Selfhood we all have a common name. What is your name then? It is "I" – that is the Spirit. We can even say "I Am" - that is the Spirit and the Soul together. In the Common Selfhood that is the name of all of us. And that "I" is what is interesting us. That "I" is what we are trying to find through meditation and other spiritual practices.

It is only when we leave our awareness of the Common Selfhood that we start saying, I am Vera, I am Chuck or I am Dave. So even feeling as a separate personality saying I am and then adding your given name you are saying the whole truth without knowing it. And looking back at all your previous incarnation you had a series of names added to that "I Am". And not one of them could even begin to dream of who you are today and the life you are living today.

Likewise, you will have a series of future incarnations adding new names to that "I Am". And the one you consider yourself to be today cannot even begin to dream of the life you will be living in the future. Turn your attention away from the constantly changing names of the personalities you once expressed and the one you think you are today and find that changeless I Am in the Common Selfhood.

Eventually we all will have an experience of the Common Selfhood and have the first-hand realization – There is no such thing as Them and Us. Everyone is Us. But to reach there we must make an effort at real Introspection to weed out all the "Them and Us" thoughts, words, desires and actions that we habitually do each day.

Look at your hand. When your attention is on the different fingertips, it is like they are separate from one another. But if you trace back each finger to the palm of your hand you realize the hand is one. The Common Selfhood is something like that. In doing so you will be able to control your emotions and thoughts. You will come to know what they really are and you will realize that YOU can change them. This means you have shifted your identification from all your thoughts and emotions, which constantly change, to the one who can change them (That's YOU). And this is a quantum leap forward in your spiritual unfoldment. Now YOU have become the Master of your life, the Master of your Destiny.

Lesson 23

Learning to Love an Enemy Page 110 through 113 in the Esoteric Practices by Daskalos

This is a most important lesson and a most powerful practice. We do this practice on an individual basis but just think how powerful it would be if done collectively by a large group of people. We could prevent wars and calm down regional & global conflicts.

Everyone has noticed that it is much easier to make an enemy than it is to make a friend. But as Researchers of Truth we are not Allowed to have enemies. We may have others who consider themselves our enemies but we should never, ever consider others as our enemy. At worst, someone who considers you as their enemy is nothing more than a brother or sister who is under illusion... shrouded by the dark clouds of ignorance and burdened by the strong sense of separation. So, in this regard, this person is more in need of our prayers and love than our friends are. As we said in the last lesson we all are part of the Common Selfhood of humanity. So as Researchers we must resist the temptation of polarizing others as enemies.

Because God is making the heart of every other person beat just like yours, even an enemy is a beloved offspring of God just as you are. In this regard, you cannot possibly be an enemy to another human being without first being an enemy to God in you.

But if you are wise and look past the tendency to polarize the situation into a "them and us" downward spiraling attitude, you will be amazed at how you can be benefited.

For example, often it can start with someone accusing you, attacking you with words complaining and maybe even insulting you. What do we do? Or better yet What should we do? First don't allow yourself to be affected by what they say. Honestly think it over. Maybe they are completely wrong or maybe they see something you don't see and are, to a degree right, although expressing it wrongly. If you argue back it will not help, it will just make the person become more aggressive. So just think about what he is saying and ask yourself is he right or wrong. Of course, your egoism will be quick to jump up and say he is wrong and try to turn the attention on their faults and not yours. But do not let the egoism interrupt your search for the truth.

No need to quarrel with them if they are wrong or no need to humiliate yourself and feel guilty if you are wrong. All we want is to research the situation and find the truth. Not being affected by what they say but looking objectively to see if what they are saying is wrong or right. Sometimes they are telling us (in a disagreeable way) something to have us change for the better. So, in this case the person behaving like an enemy is in reality helping us see something we did not notice before. Just listen to what is being said but do not allow yourself to be affected by the attack. In this way, our so-called worst enemy can be turned into our best friend. Daskalos tells a personal story about loving your enemies that is worth including in this conversation. He narrated this story: Do you think if you love, and you know how to love (not just egoistically but impersonally) - do you think anyone can injure you and become an enemy? When I was young I had a fellow working at my work. Poor fellow, he thought that I was an obstacle in his progress, he was seeing me being benefited in the promotions at work. I was laughing.

When there were promotions I took him and said, "Come, go on. Come to the promotion. I don't care about it." Well, I behaved in this way many times and one time he came to me and said, Why can I not hate you? I want to hate you, but I cannot hate you." I said, "But you don't love me, either. Try to do it." He said, "No, he replied, "I'll never love you". I continued, "Then try to hate me". He said: "I cannot hate you". I said, "Then don't hate me." And we became friends. Yes, making friends is better than making enemies. And to make friends and stop making enemies, fight egoism in you. You can never be an egoist and know how to love properly. Something else. Evil is fighting against evil and good. Goodness is only strengthening goodness. Now, choose in which side you go.

In conclusion; to focus and identify others as our enemy is a trick of our own egoism distracting us from our true enemy. In truth, the greatest enemy of a human being is all of the devilish elementals (thoughts and emotions) created in their personality and in their sub consciousness. These as a group often presents its self as an Angel of Light as Christ said. It does not matter what it presents, because egoism is always a devil, a collective demon of all the elementals of ill will we harbor and/or express. Unless we get rid of these egoistic thoughts and feelings we will never be able to awaken up our real Self-Consciousness, the Soul-Spirit Self.

So, please give due attention to this week's practice of loving enemies it is so important to our aim of Self Realization.

The Three Suns exercise is a basic but very important practice for both beginner and advanced researchers. The exercise like most of the others is vital training for the mastering of the three natures of the etheric vitality that humans are entrusted with: The Imprinting, the Kinetic, and the Sensate. With the Imprinting ether, we visualize the colored light. With the Kinetic ether, we expand the size of the three suns and with the Sensate ether we feel the ether inside our body and outside as the suns expand far beyond our body.

In this and other exercises we see the three suns overlapping but the colors do not mix, as described in the book. How is that possible? In the three-dimensional material world when two colors come together they mix and make a third color. For example, blue and red colored paints or blue and red colored lights mix and make the violet color. But in the fourth and fifth dimensional psychical and noetical worlds the colors do not mix. So, for example in this visualization the blue and rosy color suns overlap but the colors remain separate and distinct. This because each is vibrating at a different frequency and so they do not combine. It is similar to how different radio station broadcast exist in the same room without mixing. It takes a lot of practices to come to be able to see this distinction clearly.

An additional element of this practice is our wish to extend the light color radiances out into the general psycho-noetical environment for the benefit of others. Along with the extension of these beautiful radiances we implant in these angelic elementals a kind of programing, which is our wish that others be benefited with peace and understanding.

As we become skillful and competent at this exercise we can become creative in its expression. For example, let's say you are sitting in a chair waiting in some public (and probably boring) place like a dentist office, an airport, BMV or the like. So instead of feeling board or impatient, do this exercise. And you can take it further by specifically creating an elemental of light all around you and filling it with peace while you are waiting. Then when it is your time to go, deliberately leave that elemental in the chair as a blessing for the next person who comes to sit in the chair.

Another expression. Let's say you are riding in car as it passes through an economically depressed or troubled area of a city. You can extend any one or all of the enlarged three suns into the areas you pass through with the wish that the people in this area be benefited with peace and understanding. These radiations connect your consciousness from sub-consciousnesses to more and more alert levels of consciousness.

With practice a dedicated Researcher of Truth can extend the light radiations of their aura of the etheric double of their material body for miles and miles and miles. This is called projection and gives us the ability of "feeling at a distance" which is commonly called Telepathy. This is only a phenomenon of the etheric double of the material body and not a Psychical phenomenon as most people think. The aura of the psychical and noetical body extends much further but remember they are beyond the concept of space found in the third dimension.

With further practice one can even extend their perceptive ability all the way to Super-Consciousness. Super Consciousness means the range of receiving impressions is not limited giving you the ability to not only receive impressions but also interpret specific frequencies of vibrations of the ether coming from great distances (if you choose to). Again, this is what researchers call projection, what others call telepathy, but in a very high degree.

But really it is not enough just to sit there receiving impression coming from a distance and watching them as you watch the scenes of a movie. It might be very fascinating to your personality but it is not of much use, it is not what we are trying to achieve by raising our consciousness. What we are trying to accomplish is to reach SELF-Super-Consciousness, which means being aware of who and what you are while in this state of Super-Consciousness. The difference between Super Consciousness and SELF Super Consciousness is the difference between sitting and getting these impressions coming from afar and being there at the source of these impression.

Lesson 25

Page 118 Esoteric Practices book by Daskalos: Creating peace

Clean our hearts to reflect Your Love toward you and all other human beings. Our love is Your Love.

This week's lesson is a practice which enables each of us to do something tangible about the troubling world conditions around us. As you may know Daskalos lived and taught on the Greek Island off Cyprus, 65 miles off the coast of Lebanon where the clash between the different sects of the Muslims and Christians destroyed the city of Beirut and much of its population. Daskalos had something like 8 Circles for the Research of Truth with over 200 students there at the time and at the end of the conflict only two students were still living.

In 1974, Muslims from Turkey invaded Cyprus killing and chasing the Greek-Cypriot Christians from their homes on the north side of the island to the south before UN troops halted the invasion. This left a UN controlled neutral zone called a green line dividing the capital city of Nicosia – Daskalos' home. Daskalos lost friends, family and students to this invasion and knew all too well the cost of nationalistic conflict. This forced division between Turkish-Cypriot Muslims and Greek-Cypriot Christians continues to this day on Cyprus.

Daskalos often warned about the danger of creating Us vs. Them nationalistic elementals and how, if energized by a great many people become the driving mechanism that has caused wars, bloodshed and so much suffering on our home – planet Earth. Rather he advised we should put aside national egoism (which he called a real devil) and check to make sure we are giving real love for the other side, which is the gift our Soul and that we are not giving curses that come from our personality.

There is so much suffering in our material world and we cannot ignore that and only seek our own personal experiences in higher worlds. In the worlds of separateness, we live under the powerful forces of duality. In this condition, it is very easy for us to fall into a "them & us" mindset and polarize groups or individuals into pairs of opposites. You can see the "them verses us" attitude between peers, professions, family members, religions, and between races. Nowhere is this shortsighted view more dangerous than at the national level. When one nation diametrically polarizes against another nation, very strong and dangerous conditions are created. So, this week's practice is a call to all our like-minded brothers and sisters around the world to rise above the lure of conflict and create powerful prayers of peace. True peace is not the opposite of war. True peace has no polarized counterpoint. It is a peace that the world itself cannot give. But this kind of peace can be invoked in God and in our own Divine nature. By visualizing, while praying for peace we are consciously creating angelic thought-forms full of love and understanding for all humanity. These prayers empower the vibrations of harmony and infuse reason into insane situations. Transcending the "them versus us" mentality also restores our personal peace and leads us into the greater realization that there is no "them;" everyone is "us." ~ Daniel

The Buddha taught:

Hatred does not cease hatred at any time;

Hatred ceases by Love

Joshua Immanuel the Christ taught:

To hate those who love you is devilish

To love those who love you is human

To love those who hate you is Divine

Daskalos taught:

We belong to one family, the human family, and all human beings inhabit the planet, our common home. And our home is not in need of boundaries and wars of shame (or green lines which should go away). What our heart should express is only love. Something else: Do you think if you love, and you know how to love (not just egoistically but impersonally) – do you think anyone can injure you, become an enemy? So, it's very easy to make enemies, have it in your mind. It is more difficult to make friends.

Of related significance has been the recent recognition of communal prayer in affecting positive change over a given population. Tests have proven that if one per cent of a population collect in unison prayer a sharp change in behavior can be scientifically measured within that population. Such is the power of thought, such is the strength of love.

There is too much pain, sorrow and strife in the world. Many want to contribute to the amelioration of the wounds of humanity yet feel helpless. Across the globe there is a network of researchers who synchronize their prayers for world peace and harmony. You are welcome to join this community.

Lesson 26

Page 120 Community Prayer for Peace from the Esoteric Practices book by Daskalos

Greetings everyone,

The power of prayer is well known and miraculous stories abound as to the effectiveness of prayer particularly when it is done as a collective effort. Recently, I spoke with Quantum Biologist Dr. Glen Rein, who measures the results of healing prayers on human DNA. He reports that from his own research (and others) that it is quantifiable and proves that prayer, can and does produce changes in the length of human DNA strands.

Many may already know about Masaru Emoto from Japan who was in the movie "What the Bleep do we know?" From his research, he claimed that human consciousness has a molecular effect on water. Mr. Emoto exposed water in glasses to different words and music and then froze that water to observe with microscopic photography the shapes of the frozen crystals, which showed a marked difference between ones exposed to positive words and sounds which look beautifully harmonious, from the ones exposed to negative influences which revealed ugly crystal formations. As shown in the photo, water when exposed to different qualities of thought and intention, when froze, produced different shaped water crystals. It also shows crystals of the same water before and after Buddhists prayed over the water. Perhaps this effect has something to do with the age old practice of praying over your food before you eat.

The effect of prayer is well known. But what is prayer? A sincere prayer is an inward approach to our real Self and God. In real prayer, we ascend to higher and higher rungs on the ladder of relative truth. In one form of prayer, called concentric prayer, there is a focused concentration and meditation with the intent to know something. However, reciting some memorized words of a prayer mechanically while we are thinking of other things is not real prayer and it is not really effective. That is not concentration. For prayer to be effective we must be able to enter into the meaning of the words we are saying. It is focused meditation with understanding... Understanding what we are doing. This means we need concentration to make these kinds of effective prayers.

Also, we can say a prayer is a higher and higher meditation on a subject. Thus, prayer is a concentrated meditation with observation. Concentration, meditation and observation are real powers the researcher is on the road to master. What does this mastery do for you? The gain is great as it will broaden and deepen your life. It gives you the experience of living in a much more meaningful way. And it gives you the power to understand that which you concentrate on in a continually deeper way. Then, over time, your personality's self-consciousness will unfold itself into your true Self-Consciousness and eventually into Self Super Consciousness. A real prayer leads us in to higher and higher understanding of the Absolute Reality. Aimless mechanical prayers lead us nowhere.

Self-centered prayers feed and increase your own egoism. Not that it is wrong to make a prayer for what you need – that is good. But just check yourself first and make sure it is something good and not just some foolish desire. Making a prayer to the universe for harmful desire to be fulfilled for you, will not produce results. That is like a small child asking his father for a sharp knife – a sharp knife will not be given to a small child.

Should we have go to a special place to pray, like a church, temple or mediation room? If you would like to, then definitely do it. But whatever locality we are in, the real "place" to pray is in our heart. Our heart is the inner sanctum in which to pray. But before you enter the heart to pray, make sure it is clean. Which means, make sure you do not have ill feelings towards others. If you hold ill feelings it will contaminate your prayer and not produce results. What kind of prayer should we make? For sure you want to make a "warm" prayer that you resonate strongly with. Fill that prayer with the fire of Spirit and release it to the universe completely to do its work. Often the most effective prayers come spontaneously from the heart. Just a simple prayer of your own creation is much more effective than reciting words of an official prayer that mean nothing to you. We can also ask our Inner Self to make the prayer we need. But in all cases, we must say the prayer with our heart not just our lips. Which means we not only create elementals with our words and actions but with our heart too.

Every thought, desire, word and action creates what are called Elementals – thought forms. Thoughts are not nothing, they are things. These thought-things for most are not visible to the material eye, but the strong ones can be felt by anyone. These thoughts have a form, power and purpose given to them by the intention and motivation of the person expressing the thoughts, desires, words or actions. Which means that good prayers create constructive, angel-like elementals for the health and help of others. Just like expressing negative thoughts of dislike, hatred, jealousy, or of taking revenge about others creates destructive, demon-like elementals that curse and harm others. We must be careful not to create and send negativity, for after it harms others it returns to the one who initially expressed it and harms him or her too.

Knowing all this, this week we will join collectively again at 9 pm your local time every evening and make a prayer for our community which is humanity itself. Make one of your own creation or use a known one from your own culture. At that time sit in silence for a few moments to center yourself and then make your prayer clear and strong while visualizing peace in the hearts and minds of people everywhere. As we said our prayer creates an elemental.

And in this week's practice each of our prayer elementals merge into one large group elemental created and empowered by the network of other Researchers engaged in this practice.

Do not underestimate the power of consciously created group thought forms – Elementals.

Godspeed to your good prayers!

Lesson 27

Circles of Possibility & Probabilities starting on page 123 in the Esoteric Practices book by Daskalos

Hello Everyone,

This lesson including the Almond Tree and Rosebush meditations are so useful in helping us come to a clear understanding of the course of life for everything existing (e.g. atoms, plants, animals, planets, suns or galaxies) as well as the Human Being. This means that everything is living even a rock or grain of sand is living because it is composed of atoms spinning with orbiting electrons flawlessly in motion - in some cases for 14.5 billion years. Motion (movement, vibration, tremor), is the prime characteristic of life in the Worlds of Existence. It is a Universal Law that cannot be violated. Within Absolute Beingness everything is living!

All through past times and places, the enlightened ones, the masters and the adepts have, by using the Mind as reason and logic, discovered the relative truth about the lifeforms around them. And the truth they found was and is that all forms of life, including the human being, are governed by their unique Circles of Possibilities. They obey their fixed Circle of Possibility for their form of life. This is a line of study that will never end as we can, with effort, always detect finer and finer details concerning these cycles. It is called a "Circle" or "Cycle" because a cycle has a beginning and an end. The end becomes the beginning of another cycle but always the same Cycle of Possibilities. This all means that Circles of Possibilities are giving us the sense of motion and time – the sense of past, present and future. Time is an illusion; the underlying reality is the eternal now which is not an illusion. The Circle of Possibilities is a reality, but as it plays out in the Worlds of Existence over the course of time and place is an illusion.

This is so hard for us to understand because we are living in a material body, and so we are also under the illusions of time and place. We will not be able to fully understand this illusion as long as we are part of the illusion. This means that as long as we are living in the illusionary worlds of time and place we will not be able to fully enter into the real Circle of Possibilities that is in the Total Wisdom of God.

Studying the Total Wisdom of God or simply call it the Super Intelligence it is not hard to see that the lives of all the members of the Plant and Animal Kingdom are governed and controlled by something. That something is the Laws, Causes, Principles and Ideas in the Divine Plan, which have their reflection in the living forms of life.

For something to exist in the Worlds of Existence, the Worlds of Illusion, it must have a form. And each form is in strict obedience to its Circle of Possibilities and no phenomena of life can escape its particular Circle of Possibilities. For example, never will you plant an apple seed and get a tree that produces cherries. Likewise, a lion will always beget another lion, and an ape will always beget an ape, and so on. This means that it is not possible for a human being to be born from some other species. There cannot be a transmutation of an animal into a human being or vice versa. Never has this happened and never will it happen because the Circle of Possibilities governing mankind is uniquely different from all the Circle of Possibilities governing other animals all of which is perpetually under the control of the Almightyness of the Holy Spirit. In time and place everything has proceed through its Circle of Possibilities and in observing this we begin to understand the sense of time, which could be moments, minutes, days, weeks, years or eons.

The Circles of Possibilities are in all the temporary Worlds of Existence and beyond in the eternal realms of Being-Ness. But in the Worlds of Existence we come to another circle governing everything existing – the Circle of Probabilities. The Circles of Probabilities are only found in the Worlds of Existence, not in the Realms of Being-ness and there are billions and billions of these Circles of Probabilities. And still all these billions and billions of possibilities for all the various life forms are supervised and controlled by the Omnipresent, Omniscient and Omnipotent nature of the Absolute.

The Circles of Probabilities are the result of Universal Law of Cause and Effect in the Worlds of Existence. And thus, it allows for a break in the progression of the Circle of Possibilities. For example, a child is born and due to some past Karma, which exists as a Circle of Probability for that person, it may pass over at a very young age and not fully complete the Circle of Possibility of its earthly life. In this lesson, Daskalos explains all these circles as they relate to the plant kingdom. Now let's trace the material Circle of Possibilities for the body of a human being, which starts as a spermatozoon, fertilizing the egg, then cell division and cell growth, the embryo, the fetus, birth, infant, child, teenager, young adult, adult, old age and finally death of the material body and we come to the end of the Cycle of Possibilities for the material life of a human body. Now the Circle of Possibilities for the human being begins a new expression in their psycho-noetical life.

Can we say the full and complete Cycle of Possibilities for a human being going out from the timeless realms of Absolute Infinite Being-Ness, entering into the time and place three Worlds of Existence, gaining his or her experiences and returning back in full Self Realization in fact is the Journey of the Prodigal Son? Yes, these two are the same!

HE WAS LOST & NOW IS FOUND

LESSON 28 PAGE 134 IN ESOTERIC PRACTICES BY DASKALOS

Hello Everyone,

In this lesson, we will continue where we left off last time with the Circle of Possibilities for the Human Being, saying that the full and completed Circle of Possibilities for the human being is the Prodigal Son parable.

The Logos, the Holy Spirit and its emissaries, the Archangels, originate and develop each form of life by acting on the Circle of Possibilities for that form. The circle of possibilities is an Archetypal Principle that defines an array of potential experiences for each and every living form. For the human beings, the circle of possibilities outlines the entire cycle of expression starting from our descent from the divine, through the process of many, many incarnations and back home to the divine again. This is a complete cycle that intertwines all our successive incarnations together as our consciousness undergoes its expansion and purification. Each individual incarnation is like a small cycle within the full and complete circle of possibilities for a human being.

The prodigal son, of course represents all human beings as they leave the oneness of their home in the Absolute Beingness (God), enter the duality of the Worlds of Existence, have their experiences and then return home to their source. All that is the large Circle of Possibilities of a human being, whereas each individual incarnation is a small circle within the larger Circles of Possibilities. But now we see an advantage for having undergone the Prodigal Son's journey because now the son carries with him, the experiences in the illusions of Time, Space and Place but properly understood. This means he now rightly understands the illusions of time as experienced in the three Worlds of Separation. So, when he returns to his Divine Nature in the Eternal Now of Beingness he understands both time and Eternity (which is symbolized by the father putting a ring on his finger). This is something none of the Archangels know. Because they never left the oneness of God in the Eternal Now, they do not understand what time is. As Daskalos reports he has asked various Archangels: "What's Time?". All they answer and all they can answer is: "NOW".

Currently, Human Beings are behaving mostly Sub Consciously living a prodigal life. But there comes a time either through reason, or through suffering karmically by the 'Whip of Destiny' we reach a turning point in our lives where we begin the journey to return home. Even through suffering like the prodigal son as a personality suffered it still takes reason to reach that turning point and come out of the suffering and return to our Divine Nature which never suffers. For as it states in the parable, the son finds himself starving and only eating the husks he is feeding the pigs (low vibration elementals) just to survive. At this point he begins to reason and decides to return home. This is a clue for us on how to come out of our suffering. We must use reason to come out of sufferings.

The Prodigal Son leaves his heavenly father's house, goes to a far-off country (incarnation on earth) and squanders the inheritance his father gave him, making many mistakes that leads to him suffering very much. The question is: "Couldn't his (our) heavenly father prevented the son (us) from going out and making all these mistakes? Yes of course he could but then there would not be free will. God would never do that because the first gift of our heavenly father to all the infinite number of beings in him is freedom.

Likewise, we should never selfishly deny or prevent those around us (children, spouses or anyone) from expressing their free will even when you know it is going to result in a mistake. Remember most mistakes are not crimes. Everyone is making mistakes only God is not making mistakes. But you can correct mistakes and miscalculations. It is by making mistakes we learn, maybe we learn even better than by reasoning to avoid mistakes. That is why God allowed the Prodigal Son to go out into the world, make his mistakes, realize the mistakes and then return home edified. The whole parable is about the cycle of going out and returning.

We should all stop and ask our self: "Where are we on this cycle?" We are all prodigal sons/daughters, though some live more prodigally than others. Yet, if we study our own conditions in life deeply, we will find ourselves at some point in this common journey. There are some of your universal brothers and sisters who are just entering the ignorance of a prodigal material life, chasing the illusionary/transitory happiness it seems to offer.

There are others, who are starting to come to their senses and using reason are starting their journey home to their own Divine Nature in God the father. There are others who have made their first steps to return and are feeling the embrace and kiss of their heavenly father. And there are those universal brothers and sisters who have returned home and experienced the Oneness with God called Theosis. But once they reach Theosis do they stay there? This parable is also the whole process of Self Realization, which occurs in three stages.

- The First Stage is the self-realization of your personality self, which means we have introspected and discovered the strengths and weaknesses of our personality and come to an understanding of who we are. This is a necessary first step but it is not the ultimate aim of a Researcher of Truth.

- The Second Stage is the Self Realization of the Soul Self [Soul Self-Realization]. This occurs with the mastery over the Material, Psychical and Noetical bodies, which is the shaping of these three amorphous bodies to match their perfect Archetypes (It is not the gross material body that needs reshaping but we must learn to shape and use the etheric double of our material body).

- The Third Stage is the full and complete Self Realization as the Eternal Spirit Being Self. [Spirit Self-Realization] This is the completion of the Prodigal Son's journey.

Sooner or later, whether we want it or not, all of us are destined to complete the journey of the Prodigal Son and return to our Divine Natures.

If we drag our feet in life, so to speak, we slow that process down. If we want to speed that process up, we must work on it!

CONCLUSION

LESSON 29 – ESOTERIC PRACTICES BY DASKALOS

The Final pages in Esoteric Practices are Teachings, Contemplations and Observations that really need to further explanation.

So in Conclusion let's speak about Esoteric Practices in general remembering that the teachings provide the theory but they must also be accompanied by practice to be actualize. In truth, gaining the knowledge provided by the teachings without implementing the associate practices and really living the teachings is outright dangerous. Why? Because it can and most often does feed egoism. You will see seekers of truth collecting such knowledge and telling others about it imagining this means they spiritually advanced - only feeds their egoism. So really, they have been deceived by their own egoism. They have the knowledge but lack the direct experience of that knowledge which makes what they "have" like a flower that has been picked and pressed between the pages of a book. This pressed flower is beautiful but lacks the vitality of a living flower. As you know our teachings and practices are called the esoteric. Esoteric is generally thought to mean knowledge understood by only a few people. While this may be true, the word esoteric is from the Greek language and refers to the knowledge that comes from within us. Conversely, exoteric knowledge means knowledge we get from outside us, like from a school or church. You have probably noticed that as you concentrate, meditate and study the teachings something clicks and makes total sense to you. You have the feeling that you always knew it, that what you learned is not exactly new to you. Noticing that, you as a personality self may even wonder, "How is it that I already know this?" It is because you as Soul individuality already know everything.

So we have the two points, the Soul self and the personality self. Now think, when you meditate, which of these two is meditating? It is the self that is yet to know and the Self that already knows. So it is both. When the connection is made between them, the personality self comes to know something and often feels that it already knew it. When this happens for you it means you have accessed the pre-existing knowledge within you, within the Soul self. This experience comes to those who sincerely practice meditation and use observation to see what is actually going on in their meditations.

Meditation means concentrating, observing and knowing.

Now this presents a similar question: "Who is it that is guiding us as we transmute our personality self-awareness into our Soul Self Awareness?" Who makes the effort to help a small child learn how to walk? Of course, the parents as well as the child make this effort. The mother cannot teach a child to walk if the child does not make the effort to walk too. Similarly, it is our personality self under the guidance of the Soul self, so both must make the effort to awaken the personality self. We are one Self with two expressions. One is the Soul Self, our true individuality, and the other is the small personality self.

For those who want to progress in this work, it is imperative to practice visualization in the construction of forms, all kinds of forms; circles, triangles, spheres, pyramids, flames, and so on. As you progress you will see these forms in your mind's eye more clearly and brightly, and later you will see them to be even more real. This is because they are real and can even be materialized by a skilled mystic. However, that is not our aim. We are only allowed to use these powers for healing. This requires three things – practice, practice and more practice.

But why are we practicing? What is the motivation for studying these teachings and doing these practices. Of course, we first are trying to come out of our Illusions and sufferings. Which means we are working to become a better personality self, cleaning and purifying our emotions, desires, thoughts and intentions. In each step we make in this regard we come nearer to Soul Self Realization which is the aim of a Research of Truth. This means knowing our self not just who we are as the changing personality self but What we are as the Soul Self. In reality all our sufferings, all our illusions, all our troubles in life stem from the lack of awareness of What we really are – the Soul. The Soul does not suffer as the personality does and is never lost.

The personality seeks pleasure without finding true and lasting happiness. True and lasting happiness is only reached in knowing What we really are – The Soul. It is the Soul who dons the mask "our personality". The word personality comes from the Greek word "Persona" which literally means mask. Our completely unique personality is in truth the mask we wear while playing our part on the stage called life. It is different from the masks and parts you played in previous lives and is different from the masks and parts you will play in future incarnations. You are the same Soul Self all the time, but playing different parts over the course of your incarnations to get different experiences. It is a part an actor plays but it is not the actor. The problem is that in playing this part we have become totally identified with the role we play in life. So the practices and teachings of the researchers of truth slowly and safely help us disentangle ourselves from the illusion that we are only the part in life we are playing and lead us to realizing What we are beyond the role we are playing.

We ourselves have to develop the skill to be of more and more help to people. To do this it is absolutely vital to practice mastering the etheric double of your material body, which is the healing energy. But that is not all; simultaneously we should develop the ability to really understand those we try to help. This means understanding their emotions, desires and their particular ways of thinking. Understand the condition one is in and help that person. But do not try to bring to the surface of their consciousness those things that have tortured them.

Each one of you is a full and complete Self-Aware Soul eternally free and never bound. But you will eventually discover that as the personality itself you are only a result of matter, desires, feelings and thoughts. As a personality self, you are changing in time, space and place. But we are something much, much greater than just that limited personality. Gradually we will become free of all that and move on to higher knowledge and mastery. The self you mistakenly believe yourself to be is not even the entire personality self. That self cannot be relied on, because it is fragile and behind it there is always a vague, ill-defined kind of fear. But with effort over time that self can find the True Self and then "the perishable will become imperishable...the mortal will become immortal" (1 Corinthians 15:53). This is the assimilation of the perishable personality self with the imperishable inner self. How does this happen? Again, it will be achieved with practice at some point in the future.

Unfortunately, most people do not make much of an effort to understand themselves. So their lives continue on in a habitual manner...well Daskalos called it an "idiotic manner." The common person does not check to determine if what already exists in his subconsciousness is good, bad, useful or harmful. So his life continues on in an unsupervised way. But those who have planted their feet on the path of truth do not allow their ways of living to continue on in this un-examined subconscious way.

A researcher of truth has made a promise to examine his behaviors, thoughts and feelings with the daily practice of introspection and to live as the inner self. The researcher becomes the master of the circumstances found in his life whatever they are. This means that we can control and put our life circumstances in order by dissolving what is not helpful and good, while simultaneously replacing that with new and better things.

From the very moment you start acting like that you are on your way to find the inner self, you are on the way. On this way you will come to realize that the self you thought you were is nothing more than the entire collection of you own elementals, and that you really are something so much greater than the assortment of your elementals. Now, maybe for the first time, you come into conscious contact with your real self and you shift your identification from the living images of your desire thought and thought desire forms, which are the elementals residing in your subconscious mind.

I wish you all much success in your continuing deeper engagement with the teachings and practices of the Researchers of Truth! Godspeed,
