

Pattern for Cellular Regeneration

Dynamic pattern acting as a Bio-catalyzer.

Put witness (hair, words, leaves etc) on 12 concentric circles. No orientation, no other adjunct to be used with witness. It's action is calibrated on a balanced rhythm of all organic cells.

Duration of broadcast will vary according to the needs of the subject, time and frequency to be determined by use of pendulum. Drinking water can be impregnated by the pattern, or to be used in baths or lotions. Place glass on the 12 circles for a time to be determined. Sprinkle the water on plants and seeds prior to planting
