No. 15 Shield

Boosts subconscious self-defense mechanisms

- In short - A 10-minute exposure on this shield will protect you for 36 hours from any psychic or microvibratory aggression and protect you from any malicious remote action. Quoted by JACQUES THE MAYA in Habitat Medicine.

This graph was designed to defend the user from any attempt at psychic or microvibratory subordination that could be the work of malicious or even overly enthusiastic operators. In other words, you can, thanks to the shield, protect yourself from any damage to your personality, by external manipulations of your subconscious. The shield will protect you from all radionic, dowsing and magnetic remote actions; any attempt at remote suggestion or bewitchment is irretrievably led to failure.

This graph is the best known guarantee of psychic independence to date. Whoever you are, regardless of your occupation or occupation, whatever your knowledge, one day or another you will be happy to have it in your possession.

The operation of this shield does not require special knowledge: anyone can use it. This graph works by appealing to the abilities we all have to defend ourselves against psychic waves. This ability is a quality that most of us possess in a dormant way. If this is the case for you, do not worry, your quality of defense against the psychic waves will be awakened and sharpened as soon as you place your witness on the shield.

Moreover, as you use it, you will see that the awakening of your consciousness will become more and more remarkable, your sensitivity will make you react, without the slightest fuss, rest assured, as soon as you are, secretly or not, questioned. Soon you will live consciously awake! And you can finally sleep safely. In other words, during the waking part of your life, nothing about you will escape; during the resting part of your existence your consciousness will automatically block any attempt at mental subjugation of your person. What could be more wonderful than to feel alert, stress-free, fatigue-free and unsyed?

Different from other psychic protection charts, this graph exploits your own defense capabilities. The advantage of using this shield is that it makes your conscience stronger. What a comfort!

Here's how to use it. Place your light in the center of the graph on the cross and let the device act for 10 minutes. This relatively short time gives you constant protection of 36 hours without the slightest interruption.

As soon as you are placed under the protection of the shield, you will feel comforted and much more dynamic, even able to undertake new things that seemed impossible before. If you feel that sense of freedom and creativity, it is because you actually feel something barred you from the passage of free and responsible life. You'll feel liberated.
